'WRITING BETTER THAN FILMS'

Actor-Turned-Author Hayden Tells About His Wanderings

By DON KEOWN

Sterling Hayden, actor, adventurer, individualist, and now an author, said today that his first book, to be published Monday, "is the most satisfying thing I have done."

Presiding over a press conference held aboard the old sailing ship Balclutha, moored at Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco, the Belvedere writer said of the autobiography, "Wanderer":

"I think the book is good. And I have never felt that way about any of my films."

He said the book, to be published by Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., was written primarily to present "my point of view toward my society."

That point of view, he added, is that our emphasis upon the material things "is dismal, restrictive and destructive to the strength of our country."

He expressed concern over "the forces of business that control the country," which he said are turning the people into "mush."

The real menace, he said, is not communism but those things which are "washing out" the people's ability to challenge and speak out on issues.

Of his own brief association with the Communist Party, he said: "The only thing I am ashamed of is that, back in 1951, I did not have the strength to stand up to the House Un-American Activities Committee and tell them that while I would discuss my own activities, I would not cooperate in naming names. I was what they called a cooperative witness. It is the one thing of which I am deeply ashamed in my life."

He said he joined the party "emotionally, not intellectually" and left "for personal reasons" and because he was not suited for the discipline the party requires of its members.

He said that while a member of the party "I met some of the finest people I have ever known" and that he did not find them "in any way subversive or opposed to the American dream."

Hayden said he is now a happy man and that the three years spent working on the autobiography "were the most challenging years of my life."

BEAR HUNT WOUNDS

Boy's Sharp Ears Help Save Hunter

PASO ROBLES (UPI)—Young James Lokey has good ears and Gurlee A. Murphree has a lot of stamina—and the combination probably saved Murphree's life.

It happened yesterday in the rugged, brush-covered country about 30 miles southeast of Paso Robles.

Murphree, head groundskeeper at Santa Marguerita Lake, went hunting for a bear yesterday morning. He found one and shot it three times. But it got away.

With the help of a dog, Murphree set out to track the bear. He was crawling through some brush, he said, when the .22-calibre pistol in his holster somehow fired and sent a bullet into his leg.

Murphree crawled over steep hills and through dense brush for six hours, covering a distance of about two miles, and finally he could go no further. He lay on top of a hill and yelled for help.

Eleven-year-old James Lokey, meantime, was walking the mile from his school bus stop to his family's ranch home. Near the house—a mile away from Murphree's hilltop—young Lokey heard the cries for help.

He traced them back, found Murphree and went for help.

Murphree arrived at Paso Robles War Memorial Hospital 11 hours after he had been shot. He was reported in fair condition today.

The hunt for the wounded bear was resumed last night by state fish and game agents. The animal, they said, is considered extremely dangerous.

U.N. Orbiting Nuclear Ban Plan Passes

U.S.-Soviet Space Pact Is Approved By Acclamation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The General Assembly approved today by unanimous acclamation a 17-power resolution embodying a U.S.-Soviet agreement not to send nuclear weapons into space.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who could point to the agreement as an achievement of his talks here with President John F. Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, changed his mind and decided not to speak as the Assembly rushed the measure to approval.

As a result, the Assembly's unanimous approval went into the records in 20 minutes.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko told the Assembly Russia "felt it imperative to agree with the United States to prohibit putting into orbit vehicles carrying nuclear weapons into outer space."

"Negotiations took place," Fedorenko said, "and the Soviet Union is pleased that the Soviet Union and the United States could come to an agreement. The agreement is embodied in the resolution."

Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson told the Assembly that "it has been, it is and it will be the policy of the United States to keep this newly explored environ of outer space free of these dread weapons."

Taylor Park Campers Left Alone

Only one pair of campers remains at Samuel P. Taylor State Park after the rush of the summer season, but they may have an edge over all the rest of us.

The autumn nights may be chilly, but "some of the most delightful experiences may be had in the "off-season," according to Park Supervisor Neil E. Power.

Lone campers at the park today were Mr. and Mrs. Gale Herbst of Salem, Ore. Through out the winter there are always "at least one or two" hardy sorts in the park, Power said.

And they enjoy it. "There is no dust, the air smells fresher, and many small animals can be seen getting ready for winter," Power said.

X-15 Rocket Plane To Fly 6,000 MPH

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The X-15 rocket plane will make its first 6,000-mile-an-hour flight in late January or February, says a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space administration.

He said the X-15, now being modified for the souped-up speed, may be ready to fly in December, but would be delayed while its B-52 mother ship gets needed strengthening.

Hearings Set On Bay Filling

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly subcommittee opens its investigation of the filling of San Francisco Bay at hearings next week.

Chairman Edwin L. Z'berg (D-Sacramento), of the special subcommittee on natural resources, planning and public works said hearings will be held in San Francisco Tuesday and Wednesday.

Four Supervisors Back Government By Charter

Tito Is Given Red-Carpet D.C. Welcome

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Tito of Communist Yugoslavia was given a red-carpet welcome to the White House today—six years after a similar event was planned, then canceled because of mass protests.

President John F. Kennedy, greeting the Yugoslav leader, said it was most important that countries separated by an ocean, and with differences in political philosophy, try to know the policies of the nations of the world to lessen the danger of war.

'GREAT PLEASURE'

"I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the United States," said Kennedy, who added he was certain Tito would be "warmly and hospitably treated" during a 10-day tour of the nation.

Tito read-in halting English—a response in which he said he looked formard to "frank exchanges of views" on world problems of concern to both governments.

Kennedy arranged to spend about two and one-half hours in private talks with Tito during the day. These sessions were in addition to a luncheon arranged by Kennedy in Tito's honor.

VISITED IN 1960

Tito was last in the United States in 1960, to attend the General Assembly of the United Nations. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower met him there, but did not invite him to Washington.

In 1957, Eisenhower planned to entertain Tito at the White House, but abandoned the idea after being barraged with protests from members of Congress and various civic groups.

While Tito was being greeted at a 15-minute military ceremony on the south lawn of the White House, scores of pickets paraded — out of his hight — on Pennsylvania Avenue with banners labeling the Yugoslav president a murderer and dictator.

The pickets described themselves as Americans of Serbian and Croation descent.

IN ROSE GARDEN

Once the arrival ceremony was concluded, Kennedy escorted his guest directly to the presidential office, walking through the rose garden along the way.

The two leaders talked animatedly, and with gestures, as they strolled to the office.

In a speech last night to the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a leading possibility for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, declared:

"To the disgrace of every living American, we are welcoming this tyrant to the American capital. We are dining with our enemy and slapping our friends in the face."

TITO WON'T BE RIDING IN A.F. CAR

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia won't ride in an Air Force car on his San Francisco visit Saturday, after all.

Officials at Hamilton Air Force Base were asked to furnish a car for the Yugoslav dictator during his visit. But apparently somebody in the State Department thought that might remind people that on Aug. 19, 1946, soon after the end of World War II, five U.S. Air Force men were shot down and killed by Yugoslav anti-aircraft fire.

Late yesterday, the request was canceled.

Cranston Sees Brown 3rd Term

OROVILLE (AP) — Controller Alan Cranston predicted last night that Gov. Edmund G. Brown will seek a third term and will win the election.

Democrat Cranston told a meeting of county auditors and tax collectors that Democrat Brown has been an excellent governor and has statewide support.

Brown's present term expires in January, 1967.

Rain Crop Damage

FRESNO (UPI) — Yesterday's rain may have caused as much as seven million dollars damage to raisins, grape and cotton crops in the San Joaquin Valley.

Districts Problem Solution

Four of Marin's five county supervisors came out strongly in favor of charter government today, seeing it as the best solution for the redistricting problem.

The supervisors, with all but board chairman William D. Fusselman present, appeared on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" to discuss proposed re-alignment of the boundaries of supervisorial districts to make them more equitable in population.

The Fourth (northwest Marin) District, represented by George H. Ludy, has 1.8 per cent of the population, while Fusselman's Second District, (the populous Ross Valley) has 32 per cent of the population.

BEHR'S VIEW

Despite this, there was considerable reluctance among supervisors today to make the change. Only Peter H. Behr, representing the Third (Southern Marin) District, said redistricting must be done and must be primarily on the basis of population.

Byron W. Leydecker, representing the First (San Rafael-Terra Linda) District, argued that the state law provided other considerations such as "geography, cohesiveness and community of interest."

William A. Gnoss, whose Fifth District includes fast-growing Novato, said any redistricting would have to take the future into consideration. "We have to look into the crystal ball," he said.

1970 POPULATION

He estimated his district will have the biggest population by 1970. Now it is the second smallest with 16.5 per cent of the population.

Ludy said his district already has 255 square miles or 42 per cent of the total county area. If the proposed expansion of his district were approved, it would have 456 square miles or 75 per cent of the total area.

"I think this would be sheer nonsense," Ludy said. He said the county would have to supply him with a helicopter so he could get around such a large district.

Behr said the courts could force supervisors to act on redistricting through a writ of mandate such as was issued against Contra Costa County supervisors yesterday. If a county does not then act to do away with inequities, the court can come in and do the job, Behr explained.

A listener telephoned to suggest election of supervisors at large, with all voters involved in electing all five board members, might solve the inequity.

All supervisors in turn voiced approval of this idea, and Behr said he was sure that the absent Fusselman also agreed, believing that supervisors should still stand from specific

Squirrel Believed To Be Rabid

David S. Broad telephoned police at 6:30 p.m. Police Officer Gilbert Freitas captured the squirrel. Marin County Humane Society officers arrived 15 minutes later and captured it alive.

Freitas said the squirrel rolled on its feet when it walked and appeared to be foaming at the mouth.

It was taken to the humane society officers to the Marin County Health Department where tests will be conducted.

Fire Almost Destroys Garage In Larkspur

Seven paid firemen and 16 volunteers responded to the alarm at 8:28 p.m. and spent two hours mopping up after putting out the blaze. Firemen said damage totaled several hundred dollars.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Park Calls Vote Democratic Move

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Military strongman Chung Hee Park said today his election as president was a giant step toward democracy in South Korea. He pledged to work for political stability.

His chief opponent, Yung Posun, called Park's victory the beginning of "virtual dictatorship" and said the nation cannot hope for political stability.

Final official returns from the election yesterday showed Park defeated Yung by a margin of 156,029 votes. With three minor opposition candidates winning 831,344 votes, Park got only 43 per cent of the total.

Park's victory statement said his 29 months of military rule and the civilian government he overthrew were "unfortunate things of the past."

Boy Admits Babysitter's Death

Tait

Tait, a stocky junior high school student, admitted he accidentally shot Mrs. Winiford Anders, the family babysitter, while playing with his father's new .45-caliber pistol Tuesday night.

Young Tait told sheriff's deputies that after the gun accidentally discharged he panicked and stabbed the woman.

"I was afraid if she wasn't dead she would tell on me," deputies quoted Tait as saying.

The coroner's verdict is that the actual cause of death was the gunshot wound, not the knife wound in the neck.

Scranton Rules Himself Out Of Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Liberal Republicans casting about for a candidate to stop the progress of Sen. Barry Goldwater toward the 1964 presidential nomination apparently have lost a prospect.

Scranton

Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania went about as far as a politician could be expected to go yesterday in saying that he not only is not a candidate for the nomination but would buck any effort to draft him.

Scranton did an uncertain waltz on the draft question. At first he said he would respond to "an honest and sincere" call. But he added that it is impossible to launch any draft without connivance of the candidate and "I would step in and stop it."

Another GI Defects

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP) —Another American soldier—the fifth in three weeks—has defected to Communist East Germany, the East German news agency ADN claimed Wednesday night.

U.S. Army headquarters said the alleged defector, Pvt. Frank Barton, 22, of Los Angeles, has been absent without leave since Aug. 30 from his unit in Giessen, northwest of Frankfurt.

No Aid For Yeman

GENEVA (AP) — The International Committee of the Red Cross complains that its appeal for medical aid for strife-torn Yemen has aroused "only a little echo."

The all-Swiss body said that without international assistance it could not provide relief for the victims of Yemen's civil war.

Meeting In Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — An international Communist source said today that Communist party delegations from 20 to 25 foreign countries would meet in Moscow Nov. 7 to prepare a call for a world meeting to discuss the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

The informant said the meeting probably would be called for February or March and all Communist parties in the world, approximately 100, would be invited.

Mrs. Nhu 'Playing'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says he thinks Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, first lady of South Viet-Nam, is just "having a good time" with her comments on U.S. policy in her country.

Dulles, speaking to an American Gas Assn. convention yesterday, said he felt it was wise to allow her to visit the United States, but that he does not sympathize with her viewpoint.

Trans-Atlantic Cable

TUCKERTON, N.J. (UPI)—The world's largest telephone cable, reaching 3,500 nautical miles from Tuckerton to Cornwall, England, went into service yesterday.

The new trans-Atlantic cable is the first to directly link the United States and England. It was installed at a cost of 47 million dollars.

The system is a joint operation of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the British post office, which provides telephone service in England.

State Denies Stays For Two Slayers

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The State Supreme Court today denied stays of execution to Ernest B. Lopez, 40, a tailor, and Willard Winhoven, 52, an electrician, sentenced to die for a Los Angeles holdup and shooting in which one person was killed and four others were wounded.

Nobel Prize For Medicine Given Three

Two Englishmen, Australian Win For Nerve Work

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — The 1963 Nobel Prize for medicine was awarded today to two British researchers and one Australian for their discoveries concerning the operation of nerve cells.

Winners of the $51,158 award were Alan Lloyd Hodgkin, 49, and Andrew Fielding Huxley, 45, both of Cambridge University, England, and Sir John C. Eccles, 60, of Canberra, Australia.

Their citation said they were receiving the prize for their discoveries concerning the ionic mechanisms involved in excitation and inhibition in the peripheral and central portions of the nerve cell membrance.

SALK MENTIONED

Sources said earlier that other top contenders for this year's prize in medicine were Drs. Jonas Salk of Pittsburgh and Albert Sabin of Cincinnati for the development of the anti-polio -vaccines which bear their names. Also under consideration was Prof. Horace Magoun of the University of California.

The Nobel committee said Eccles was given the award for his research on the fundamental transmission of nervous impulses. It said Eccles had established a connection between inhibition of nerve cells and the repolarization of the cell's membrance.

The committee said Eccles had "thus solved what has long been one of the main riddles in the psysiology of the central nervous system."

NERVE IMPULSES

Hodgkin's and Huxley's prize-winning work concerned the physical and chemical nature of nerve impulses, the committee said.

The announcement said the work of all three doctors was in the great tradition of nerve physiology.

Hodgkin has published numerous papers on the nature of nervous conduction. His hobbies include travel and ornithology. He is married and has one son and three daughters.

Huxley is married and the father of one son and four daughters and lists walking and shooting among his recreations.

Eccles is a past president of the Australian Academy of Science, was educated at Melbourne University, Australia, and Oxford University, England. He is married and has nine children, four sons and five daughters. His hobbies include tennis, walking and folkdancing.

Church Appointment

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI named Msgr. John James Ward, 43, as auxiliary to the archbishop of Los Angeles, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, yesterday. Msgr. Ward had been vice official of the Metropolitan Ecclesiastical Tribunal of Los Angeles.

Fronting on Atlantic City's five-mile-long boardwalk are 35 hot dog stands, 25 restaurants, 10 popcorn stalls, 50 novelty shops, 15 amusement parlors, four shooting galleries, five minature golf courses, 33 clothing stores, two furriers, two stockbrokers and two phrenologists.

U.S. Launches Two Satellites To Check On Nuclear Blasts

News On Shots Blacked Out 'Because Of Recent Test Ban'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Two sentry satellites raced through space today on a secrecy-cloaked mission aimed at perfecting a foolproof means of policing the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

Their assignment: Determine the feasibility of using satellite-borne instruments to detect nuclear explosions as far as 200 million miles from earth. The treaty forbids such blasts in outer space.

Intricate devices in the twin satellites were designed to draw a chart of space radiation so they and later sentinels can immediately spot any sudden surge of energy from a far out explosion.

Because of a complex flight pattern intended to place the two satellites into widely-separated, 57,000-mile-high orbits, officials will not know until Saturday whether the early phase of the mission is completely successful.

No official announcement is expected on the operation, known by the code name Vela Hotel. No reason was given for the news blackout, but unofficially it was reported the United States did not want to be embarrassed by indicating to the Soviets that it did not trust them to adhere to the test ban treaty.

Despite the secrecy, newsmen were alerted by sources and watched from nearby beaches when the Atlas-Agena booster rocket blasted off at 9:32 last night with the two satellites aboard.

Reliable sources reported the satellites had separated and settled into great egg-shaped orbits ranging from 230 to 57,000 miles above the earth. As the space messengers streaked upward, they were about 20 miles apart.

Under the flight plan, at 3:22 p.m. today a rocket engine aboard satellite No. 1 fires to kick it into a circular orbit where both the high and low points of the orbit are 57,000 miles. No. 2 continues in the original elliptical path for an additional 37 hours until it reaches the 57,000-mile altitude for the second time. Here an on-board rocket ignites to jockey it into a circular path. By this time, the two vehicles will be separated by about 100,000 miles.

Two widely-separated satellites provide a safeguard against a false alarm which could be triggered by a cosmic ray shower or a radiation flare on the sun. Scientists consider it unlikely that such phenomena could strike two well-spaced satellites at the same instant, but that's something project Vela Hotel aims to learn.

Vela Hotel is a segment of a three-part program designed to police the nuclear test ban treaty, which outlaws all nuclear tests except underground detonations.

The others are Vela Sierra for detecting blasts in the atmosphere and Vela Uniform to monitor underground blasts.

Brown Agrees Psychiatrist To Get Post

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown looked to the psychiatric profession today to find someone to run the state department of mental hygiene.

After meeting yesterday with a delegation of psychiatrists, the governor said he had agreed not to appoint anyone as director of mental hygiene without psychiatric society approval.

COMMITTEE NOMINATION

Brown also said he would select the appointee from nominations proposed by its committee, would not seek any change in the law requiring superintendents of mental hospitals to be medical doctors, and would allow no interference with the medical treatment programs from the Finance Department, Health and Welfare Administrator Winslow Christian, or "myself as governor."

Former Mental Hygiene Director Daniel Liberman resigned recently after saying Brown was thinking of putting lay administrators in charge of mental health programs.

THOUGHT OF LAYMAN

Brown admitted at a recent news conference he was thinking of seeking a change in the law because many psychiatrists were unwilling to run mental hospitals at state salaries.

Dr. Fred Tetzlaff, spokesman for the delegation of five psychiatrists, said Brown assured them there will be no radical change in state policy, and both the mental hygiene director and hospital superintendents will continue to be psychiatrists.

Imitation Ice Cream Being Fought In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Importing vegetable oil "imitation ice cream" from England by way of Canada is being fought by representatives of the dairy industry in this country.

The product is a combination of wheat corn and soya flour, plus vegetable oils and various other additives. It contains no milk solids or butterfat which are legally required in U. S. manufactured ice cream.

DONALD K. SLAYTON
Missed by heart beat

Slayton To Be Civilian Astronaut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Donald K. Slayton, the astronaut who missed by a couple of heartbeats of being one of the first Americans to vault into space, is quitting the Air Force to try to win his space wings as a civilian.

Slayton, 39, is understood to have taken the step because the Air Force grounded him for an erratic heart rate although the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has assured him of flying status.

CLEAR WAY

A NASA spokesman said that Slayton, who was the only one of the seven pioneer astronauts not to ride into space, will be allowed to take part in missions as long as he is with someone else.

This would clear the way for "Deke" to get off the ground in the program aiming to land an American on the moon. Stepping stones on this road are flights in the two-man Gemini spacecraft and then in the three-man Apollo designed to land on the moon. No more solo flights are planned.

CIVILIAN STATUS

A NASA official said last night that Slayton will continue as astronaut activities coordinator—a job he's held since being grounded — and also will be a civilian astronaut.

All the original astronauts were military pilots Nine military and civilian trainees were added last year.

Howard Gibbons, spokesman at the Houston Space Center, said Slayton mailed his resignation to the Air Force a week ago with a letter explaining his belief that he could be more effective in his job as a civilian.

Kennedy Signs Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The annual defense appropriation bill, this time totalling 47.2 billion dollars, was signed by President John F. Kennedy today.

The amount is 1.8 billion dollars less than was originally requested by the Kennedy administration.

The appropriation, for the 1964 fiscal year that began July 1, does not include money for the military pay increases that Congress voted effective Oct. 1.

The increases will require a separate bill carrying about 900 million dollars.

Negotiators Seeking End To Sahara Battle

ALGIERS (AP)—Algerian and Moroccan troops still battled in the Sahara today as negotiators kept up efforts to reach a truce.

Moroccan military headquarters at Marrakech said last night the fighting was spreading north and south of Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub, two contested desert outposts about 900 miles southwest of Algiers.

The outposts apparently had changed hands several times since Tuesday when the fighting in the ill-defined border region broke out.

An Algerian government spokesman said the Moroccan forces launched heavy attacks yesterday, supported by tanks, artillery and jet planes.

The Moroccan army said an Algerian plane strafed and bombed Moroccan positions in the desert and attacked a caravan west of Colomb-Bechar, the Algerian supply base about 250 miles northeast of the combat area.

There were no official casualty reports.

'DECORATION' JOB AT HIGH SCHOOL

Somebody invaded Terra Linda High School's campus last night, burned the letters "NH" in the football field turf and painted "NH" and "SR" on gymnasium walls. There was also paint splattered on the walls. At top, custodian Robert Owens tries to wash paint from the floor. At bottom, custodian William J. Clinton examines letters in lawn. "Somebody apparently used a torch to burn the football turf," said San Rafael Police Officer Tommy Thompson. The San Rafael Fire Department was called to put out the blaze at 9:21 p.m. School authorities though it might be more than coincidental that Terra Linda and Novato High Schools have a football game scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday in Novato. he added, which has a setting of adventure at sea "on a vessel very much like the Balclutha."

He said he hopes, eventually, to get away from acting entirely.

Asked about his attitude toward Hollywood, he replied: "Hollywood is full of good people if they were given a chance."

But he looks upon his own acting career, he said, "as following the path of least resistance. It was destructive of my self-respect."

He said he now regards himself as a permanent resident of the Bay Area. He said he chose Marin County as his home because of his love for the sea, because of the natural beauty and especially Mount Tamalpais with its many fine trails, because of the proximity to San Francisco, and because "there's a good radical element in the area."

"Some people might prefer the terms 'liberal' or 'progressive', but I think the word 'radical' is a good one," he declared.

As for the term "maverick" frequently applied to him, Hayden said: "I like it."

In the rapid-fire question-and-answer session during which television cameras turned and press cameras flashed, Hayden also:

Praised Marlon Brando and other celebrities who have taken active roles in the civil rights fight. "I feel a certain guilt because I have not been active myself and I cannot explain why I haven't."

Expressed the "enormous respect" which he acquired for Marshal Tito and his Yugoslavian partisans while serving in that country for the Office of Strategic Services in World War II, and said he is looking forward to hearing Tito speak during his upcoming visit to San Francisco.

Said he had no plan for any repeat of his much-publicized South Seas voyage with his children aboard the Wanderer. He termed it "my flamboyant gesture."

Poor Crops Due 'To Poor Farming'

VIENNA (AP) — The Bulgarian Communist party newspaper says the country's poor wheat harvest this year is due to bad farming not bad weather.

A copy of the newspaper Rabotnichesko Delo received here said Bulgaria this year had suffered "a complete breakdown of the wheat production plan" due to "insufficient application of scientific achievements and of long-standing experience."

Bulgaria, which used to export wheat, recently contracted to buy up to 450,000 tons from Canada.

STOCKS TODAY

OBITUARIES

AP Veteran George Galli Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—George Galli, whose 50-year career in the traffic department of the Associated Press spanned such experiences as tapping out the flash of President Harding's death, collapsed and died of a heart attack today. He was 71.

Galli joined the Associated Press July 1, 1907 and retired March 31, 1957.

Galli and his wife had gone to the Hall of Justice today to protest a traffic ticket citation. Galli went to protest there was no stop sign at the intersection he was accused of driving through.

During the appearance, Galli went to a room upon feeling ill, collapsed and died.

Galli was the Morse telegrapher present at the Palace Hotel Aug. 2, 1923, when Mrs. Harding emerged from a room and screamed for a doctor. The Associated Press' Steve Early was in the corridor and, when Harding's death was confirmed, scored a tremendous beat. Galli tapped out the flash.

MRS. FALKENSTEIN

Funeral services for Alice A. Falkenstein, Marin resident for three years, were held today in San Francisco.

Mrs. Falkenstein died Tuesday in a local hospital after a long illness. She was 97.

She was born in Pescadero, San Mateo County. For many years she was a school teacher near Merced and in San Francisco. She moved from San Francisco three years ago to the Marvelous Marin Rest Home in San Rafael, where she lived until her last illness.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Alice J. Short; a son, James L. Falkenstein, and a sister, Miss Julia McCormick, all of San Francisco.

Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Ilgatius Church, San Francisco. Burial was in Pescadero Catholic Cemetery.

San Rafael Girl, 4, Is Struck By Auto

A 4-year-old San Rafael girl was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a possible skull fracture and multiple scrapes and bruises after being hit by a car while crossing Devon Drive shortly before 5 p.m.

The driver of the car, Glyn William Pohl of 836 Las Pavadas Avenue, Terra Linda, said Karon Rhodes of 303 Devon Drive ran in front of his car near her home.

Karon, according to police, ran from a traffic island which divides the north and southbound lanes of Devon Drive. Pohl was driving north on Devon Drive.

Four Corte Madera Houses Are Looted

Four houses being built east of Highway 101 in Corte Madera have been looted of $1,250 in electrical equipment, James Collins, representing Mariner Highlands Development, Inc., reported to police yesterday.

Inspector Harold N. Hockett said Collins reported workmen found three dishwashers, three electric ranges, three electric ovens and one garbage disposal unit had been stolen some time in the past two or three weeks.

Boy Breaks Arm

Mark Ward, 7, suffered a broken left arm and a cut eyebrow yesterday when he fell out of a tree in the back yard of his home at 252 Mount Shasta Drive, Lucas Valley. His father, Raymond Ward, called for an ambulance at 5:36 p.m., and the boy was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Boulder Crashes Kitchen

PASADENA (AP)—A visiting giant barged into a Pasadena home, nearly ran over a terrified housewife and then sat solidly in the middle of the kitchen floor.

Police said the boulder was probably loosened by rainfall before it crashed into Mrs. Mary Ann Otero's home yesterday.

"It sounded like thunder. Everything was so quick," she said. "I turned to the left. The rock passed my right leg. It missed me by inches."

Mrs. Otero, 25, said it was the third time a large rock rumbled down to her home since she and her husband, Ramon, moved in two years ago.

"We used the others as stepping stones, but I don't know what we'll do with this one," she said.

Her children, Maria Elena, 3, and Jose Antonio, 11 months, were in another part of the house when the boulder smashed through the back door.

Theft Of Radio

Burglars pried the molding off the window of a Northwestern Pacific Railroad caboose, parked at the rail yards at Tiburon, removed the glass and then stole a $200 two-way radio fram the car, company detective Gary Simmons told sheriff's officers yesterday.

Oil Firm Plans Big Expansion

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A 60-million-dollar expansion of its Martinex refinery is planned for next year by the Shell Oil Co.

Monroe E. Spaght, Shell president, said yesterday site preparation will start immediately and contracts will be awarded next year.

The production capacity will be increased by 55 per cent to 85,000 barrels a day. The project should be completed by mid-1966.

Wheel, Tire Gone

Mrs. R. C. Redway reported to Mill Valley police last night that between 9 p.m. Tuesday and 7 a.m. yesterday someone took a tire and wheel from the unlocked trunk of her car, parked on Buena Vista Avenue near Oakdale Avenue. Mrs. Redway lives at 36 Hillcrest Road.

Tire, Wheel Stolen

Theft of a tire and wheel, valued at $26, from the parking lot of the Roll-Aire Skating Center at 863 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, was reported to San Rafael police yesterday by Norman J. Riella of 203 Picnic Avenue, San Rafael. Riella said the tire and wheel were taken between 10 and 11:45 p.m.

Shotgun Missing

James Reynolds, 2111 Centro East Street, Tiburon, told sheriff's officers yesterday a $50 shotgun had been stolen from his car, left at a Texaco service station on Tiburon Boulevard while the motor was being rebuilt. The thief smashed a wing window to gain entry.

Burglars Get $200 At Country Club

About $200 was taken by burglars sometime last night from the Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club at 1000 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael.

Entry was made by forcing open a door to the bar, according to a spokesman for the club.

Cub Pack Forms

Cub Pack 13 was formed last night in Sausalito and the first pack meeting set for 7:30 p.m., Nov. 4, at the social hall of the First Presbyterian Church. It is the only Cub pack in Sausalito. John E. Connors was elected cubmaster. Pack committee chairman is Robert E. Stohler.

Strawberry Map

Strawberry Recreation District directors last night requested the district architect, J. Martin Rosse, to prepare a map showing district properties and recreational easements, Patricia M. Gowen, secretary, said today.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County

Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

SENIORS REPAIR BOOKS FOR JUNIORS

Hundreds of children's books from the Mill Valley School District have been collected at the San Rafael Recreation District to be rebound by Marin senior citizens. Mrs. Ethel Bryce (left), Mrs. Lillian Grott and Mrs. George E. Bennett started work on the project yesterday at the San Rafael Recreation Center, and it will continue on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. "This is the first of a variety of projects," said Richard Phenix, coordinator for the Marin Council of Community Services, "and our seniors are eager to go to work." Union Pacific Working For Rock Island Merger

CHICAGO (UPI)—The president of Union Pacific Railroad said yesterday his line is ready to invest more than 200 million dollars in Rock Island Railroad equipment should the two carriers merge.

Arthur E. Stoddard said at a press conference that the investment would "benefit the stockholders of the combined companies, the shipping and traveling public, and the communities served by the merged railroads."

Rock Island stockholders will vote on the proposed merger Nov. 15. Two-thirds of the stock must approve the merger for it to be valid.

The Chicago and Northwestern Railroad also offered to merge with the Rock Island, but Col. Henry Crown, chairman of the Rock Island finance committee, told reporters the Rock Island would not consider the North Western offer.

Rock Island president R. E. Johnson said he expects the merger proposal to pass despite opposition from dissident stockholders who favor a North Western merger.

Under the proposed merger, Rock Island stockholders would receive .718 of a share of Union Pacific stock for each share of Rock Island stock.

The Union Pacific also would sell to the Southern Pacific about 3,500 miles of the Rock Island lines south and southwest of Kansas City.

Nixon Has Plan For Newspapers

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon suggested today that President John F. Kennedy call an early meeting of unions and publishers to discuss means of preventing the death of any more newspapers.

Nixon's comment was prompted by the discontinuance of the New York Mirror.

"I think that the problem is important enough for President Kennedy to call a meeting at the White House so that the unions involved and the publishers can discuss it," Nixon said.

Shakeup By Unruh Attacked

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Speaker Jesse M. Unruh's shakeup of lower house committees was attacked today by Assembly Minority Leader Charles J. Conrad (R-Sherman Oaks).

He called it "another movement against good government."

The speaker merged the Legislative Representation Committee with the Rules Committee and completely eliminated the Livestock and Dairies Committee and Manufacturing, Oil and Mining Industry Committee.

Livestock and Dairies and Legislative Representation — which regulates lobbyists—had been headed by Republicans until majority Democrats pushed through a rules change in the special legislative session depriving the minority of committee chairmanships.

Conrad, in a statement, was critical of Unruh's turning over the work of Livestock and Dairies to Agriculture.

He said the chairman of Agriculture, John Williamson (D-Bakersfield) is listed as a businessman in the Assembly roster. Conrad said his appointment demonstrates "the contempt felt by the Democrats toward California's great agricultural community."

Vaccinated Vet

OWENTON, Ky. (AP) — Dr. Billy Green isn't worried about cattle disease now, if he ever was. While the veterinarian was aiming a fully loaded syringe at a balky calf, the calf jumped and Green vaccinated himself in the knee.

Family Holds Reunion In Swiss Home Town

Mrs. Mariele Jacober Von Rotz of San Anselmo went on a once-in-a-lifetime mission this summer, joining the Jacober family in Switzerland for its first reunion in 56 years.

The 12 Jacobers, including Mrs. Von Rotz, laughed, sang, danced, feasted, and compared notes on the past half-century of living.

During a one-day celebration in their home town of Sarnen they were entertained by flag twirlers and yodeling nieces.

The Jacobers hadn't been together since Albert, now 56, was a baby, and it was a big event for the town.

"Never in a hundred years had they seen anything like that, such a big family getting together after so many years and from so far away!" Mrs. Von Rotz said.

Brothers and sisters, ranging in age from 56 to 77, joined in the festivities, singing Swiss songs and dancing even the fastest Swiss folk dances.

Joining the fun as the unofficial 13th member of the family was A. Von Rotz, former mayor of San Anselmo, a native of the neighboring town of Wolfenschiessen.

"They love him like a brother," said Mrs. Von Rotz.

The reunion was the result of several years of planning, writing and telephoning by Mrs. Von Rotz.

It was her fourth trip to Switzerland since 1947, but it was the first time that all four members of the Jacober family from the United States were there at the same time.

The Von Rotzes spent 10 weeks in Europe, most of it in Switzerland.

"During that time there were six birthdays in the family including mine," Mrs. Von Rotz said. Among her birthday presents is a model of a Swiss chalet complete with balconies which was shipped to San Anselmo.

The Von Rotzes also took side trips to Germany and Austria and Von Rotz visited his brother and uncle in his home town.

Three of the Jacober brothers, now all living in California, preceded Mrs. Von Rotz to the United States.

When asked if they planned another trip to Switzerland, Von Rotz said jokingly, "At our age you don't plan," but he had a twinkle in his eye that indicated he was thinking about another trip.

Sausalitans May Check Out Books For One Month

Sausalito Library trustees last night adopted a policy to permit borrowers to keep some books, such as reference volumes, out one month. Other books are lent for two and one-week periods.

The library is being "revitalized" by addition of many new books, weeding out old ones, and a new type of card catalog which makes it possible to put new books on the shelves "almost immediately," Mrs. James J. Carroll, acting president, said.

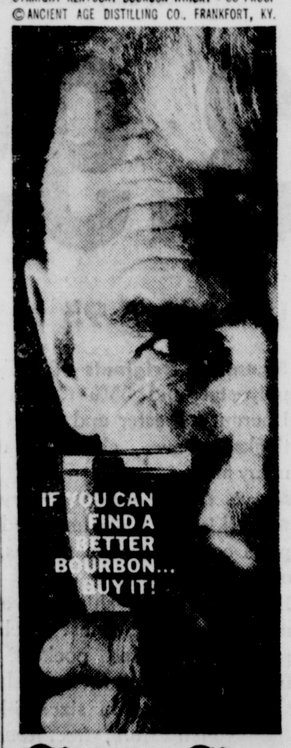

Despite the fact the library is now on funds at this time of year, the board decided to keep its present staff of three full-time and one part-time employees.

Now five kinds of Chevrolets for all kinds of people!

JET-SMOOTH LUXURY CHEVROLET—For luxury-loving people. Here's the Jet-smoothest, most luxurious Chevrolet ever built! Rich new styling, finer appointments in all four series and 15 models. Including those dazzling new Super Sports! Engines up to 425 hp*, manual or Powerglide* transmissions to match your tastes!

NEW CHEVELLE—For pacesetting people. A totally new kind of car with small-car handling, big-car comfort! All wrapped up in styling that makes expensive cars jealous. Chevelle serves every purpose with three series and 11 models, and a full choice of engine and transmission teams!

CHEVY II—For practical people. Chevy II with new V8 power* tops all thrifty cars for fun-on-a-shoestring. Stretches the shoestring further with 4- and 6-cylinder engines. Chevy II's six models in two series all like pretending they're bigger, more expensive cars—and they act like it!

CORVAIR—For fun-loving people. More fun than ever from Corvair's new bigger engine! Same Corvair handling and riding ease with a dressed-up '64 look in 9 models—including the 150-hp Turbocharged Spyders, Club Coupe and Convertible!

CORVETTE—For sports-minded people. More sport than this you won't find on wheels! Corvette now rides softer, smoother—but loses none of its gusto because its big V8 offers versions from 250 to 375 hp*!

Want to get together with other car-loving people? Go see your Chevrolet dealer . . . he likes all kinds! *optional at extra cost

Quint Might Be Moved Soon

ABERDEEN, S.D. (UPI)— James Andrew Fischer, six pounds, one ounce, frolicked in his incubator today and hospital officials said he may be moved out into the open "within a day or two."

James Andrew, heaviest of the Fischer quintuplets, was taken from his isolette Tuesday —the first of the quints to make the big jump to the less rigidly controlled incubator.

Dr. James Berbos, the family physician who delivered the quints, said the four girls would be placed in incubators "when they seem to be ready."

Truce Is Called In Chicken War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and the European Common Market have called a truce in their chicken war which had been shooting holes in hopes for an Atlantic trade partnership.

After 16 months of haggling, the dispute over the market's tariff on poultry was turned over yesterday to a neutral international panel.

The panel, to be selected by officials of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, will issue an advisory ruling, expected in about three weeks.

Cerebral Palsy Talk Is Slated At School

"New and Old Methods of Physiotherapy for Cerebral Palsy" will be the topic of a talk by Dr. Malvern S. Dorinson of Ross on Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. at the Marindale School, Terra Linda.

Dorinson, a psychiatrist, is a consultant on cerebral palsy to the State Department of Public Health. His discussion is sponsored by the Marindale Parents' Group.

Bushmen of the Kalahari wasteland in Southern Africa use an arrow poison so potent that one drop can kill a man if it enters the bloodstream.

Firemen Set Own Blaze For Practice

ARLINGTON, Kan. (AP)— About 150 spectators watched as firemen put out flames in a house once, twice and again and again.

The fire department set the vacant house afire, and put out the flames each time, as part of a school for firemen.

There were about 1,579,000 marriages in the United States in 1962, a 1.9 per cent increase over the figure of 1,550,000 for 1961.

ROGER JONES
Rescue comes in remote ravine

LEAVES LAST NOTE

Trapped By Dozer, He Gives Up Hope

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Dear mom, dad and Darlene, I love you," the young man wrote on the back of an old bill of sale he had fished from his pocket.

He laid the note beside him in the bottom of the ravine where his legs and lower body had been pinned to loose earth and brush by a 15-ton bulldozer when he dismounted momentarily while clearing brush.

Roger Jones, 24, had given up hope yesterday that anyone would find him. He had lain alone in the remote area east of the city for three hours or more.

Then Harold Pollock and Bill Green happened to pass by on a little used road. Jones saw them and screamed for help.

"Please drive this thing off me," he begged.

They went for help.

It took five wreckers to lift the bulldozer.

Churchman Labels Death Penalty Barbaric Practice

Our society should spend its time and money investigating the psychology of murderers rather than executing them.

This was the advice of Dr. Edward V. Stein, professor of psychology at the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, speaking last night at the concluding forum of a series on capital punishment, sponsored by the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church.

"The time will come," Stein predicted, "when executing a murderer will seem to us as absurd as punishing a child for not weighing enough . . .

"Murderers are persons whose lives have been brutalized—damaged by other humans. Society should use its resources to determine and correct these psychological disturbances."

Stein spoke to about 60 people in the church. At two earlier forums, San Quentin Prison Warden Fred R. Dickson spoke against the death penalty, and San Rafael attorney William O. Weissich spoke in favor of it.

The seminary psychologist, whose home is in Sleepy Hollow, was especially critical of Weissich's argument that capital punishment is a deterrent to murder.

The theory that fear of death prevents murder is society's subtle excuse for wreaking vengeance on criminals, Stein said. Quoting Freud, he said we project "hostile impulses in ourselves on to the criminal." The murderer is punished so that society can reassure itself that all is well.

Calling capital punishment simply "barbaric," Stein said such "mistreatment lowers the ethics of society in an attempt to protect itself." In examining the implications of the death penalty, we should ask, "What are we doing to ourselves?" he said.

"When we kill a murderer, we are doing exactly what we say not to do."

Besides the ethical problem in retaining the death penalty as an alleged deterrent, there are no real grounds for saying the penalty prevents murder, he said.

"Case studies reveal that murderers do not consider the possibility of the death penalty." Persons who favor the death penalty "confuse tradition with proof," Stein said.

Capital punishment is immoral for Christian society, Stein said, for it also discriminates. He referred to comments by Warden Dickson and former Warden Clinton T. Duffy of San Quentin that those who are executed are persons without money. Stein pointed out that former Sing Sing Warden Louis E. Lawes wrote of persons executed while he was warden, "they varied in age from 17 to 63, came from all kinds of homes, but they were all poor and friendless."

It may actually be cheaper to abolish the death penalty, Stein said, but if it were not, it is wrong to continue it because of the cost in keeping criminals. "We do not stop building hospitals for the crippled and mentally retarded just because of the expense," he said.

Long prison sentences are certainly more humane than deprivation of life, Stein said, for "even in prison something constructive can be done. And if a man cannot be rehabilitated, we can at least keep him alive . . . If we can keep a tiger in the zoo, we can keep a man in prison."

The Christian has a responsibility, Stein said, to examine and review the facts of capital punishment.

"The murderer deserves our redemptive love, not punitive justice," he concluded.

Pupils Shaken As Bus, Taxi Collide

About a dozen Bel Aire School pupils were shaken but unhurt at 2:10 p.m. yesterday when a school bus taking them home collided with a taxi at Tiburon Boulevard and Cecelia Way.

Charles (Teddy) Cohen, 42, of 488 Irving Court, Tiburon, proprietor of Ted's Taxi, visited a doctor for neck strain, reported the California Highway Patrol.

The cab, going west on Tiburon Boulevard, left 92 feet of skid marks, reported highway patrol officer Frank Hulley. The Patchett Co. bus, driven by Mavis Lee Lund, 38, of 12 Laurel Avenue, Belvedere, had just entered the boulevard southbound from Cecelia.

The pupils were being driven home from their classes in kindergarten through third grade, reported Supt. Edward Pino of Reed School District.

Burglary Suspect Is Held To Answer

Byron Lloyd Berry, Mill Valley jazz trumpeter and rug cleaner charged with three counts of burglary and two of receiving stolen goods, was held to answer in Marin County Superior Court on all five counts yesterday.

Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court ordered Berry, 49, of 15 Melrose Avenue, bound over after several burglary victims appeared in court to identify loot from burglaries at their homes, and Sgt. Ted Zink of the Sausalito Police Department said the valuables were found in Berry's home.

Raincoat Stolen

Theft of a $25 raincoat from a car parked on Tamalpais Avenue between Fifth and Mission avenues Friday was reported to San Rafael police yesterday by A. J. Stagnaro of San Francisco. Stagnaro said one of the car windows had been pried open.

New Annex Unit Meets

Four members of a new county commission, set up by state law to rule on annexations and incorporations, held a preliminary meeting at the Civic Center yesterday to start picking a fifth member.

The four are Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker and Assessor Bert W. Broemmel, picked by the county supervisors; Jan Paul Dyk, Sausalito city councilman, and M. F. Silva, Novato, chosen by the cities. A fifth member is to be chosen by the four to complete the commission.

The four decided they would meet again at 8 p.m. Monday in room 413 of the Civic Center. At that time, nominations will be made for the fifth member.

One On The Mayor

SAN LEANDRO (AP)—Mayor Jack Maltester waited 20 minutes for the WALK sign at a crossing, then asked the city staff to check the sign. The report said "the signal operates only when the pedestrian presses the button."

Sausalito Acting Postmaster Named

William D. McDonald Jr. has been installed as acting postmaster for Sausalito, C. N. Benson, postoffice area inspector, announced today.

McDonald, 37, who began work in 1951 as a substitute carrier in Sausalito, succeeds Henry Heynen, who retired last July. He received his regular appointment as postal worker in 1954 and since 1960 has held position as window clerk.

McDonald lives at 534 Spring Street with his wife, Helen, and three children, William III, 16, Harold, 15 and Victoria, 12.

He went to Sausalito schools as well as Tamalpais High School, worked three years for Sausalito Fuel and Ice Co. and briefly as a gauger for American Distilling Co. He served in the Army from 1944 to 1947, with U.S. occupational forces in Okinawa and Japan.

He is a volunteer fireman and active in Sausalito Little League.

D. T. Eckles, assistant postmaster, has been in charge of the postoffice since Heynan's retirement. He will continue as assistant postmaster.

Viet Nam Troops Kill Five Reds In Surprise Raid

SAIGON (AP) — Vietnamese troops lifted by U.S. helicopters killed five Viet Cong guerrillas today and captured 12 others in a surprise raid on a Communist encampment 15 miles west of Saigon.

Officials said there were no government or American casualties although two helicopters were hit by Red gunfire.

The 60 South Vietnamese soldiers were flown into the battle area in six helicopters.

Yesterday four South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and nine others wounded when a truck struck mines laid overnight by Communist guerillas at Hon Quan, 60 miles north of Saigon.

Man Stumbles Into CHP With Cut Wrist

Herbert Laird Hamilton, 48, of 100 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, stumbled into the California Highway Patrol Office parking area in Corte Madera just before 7 a.m. today, mumbling, "Help me. Help me."

To officer Robert Espagnolle, just leaving to go on patrol, he displayed a slight cut on his right wrist, which he said he had inflicted with a razor blade.

Espagnolle and Officer William Chaty took Hamilton to San Rafael General Hospital and then to the sheriff's office to be taken to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Hamilton said he was unemployed, reported Espagnolle, adding, "We didn't get much else out of him."

Fish And Smiles Named For Island

CAGLIARI, Sardinia (AP) — Sardines were named after the Island of Sardinia—but so was the sardonic smile.

Folklore here says ancient inhabitants of the island chewed a drug herb which caused spasms of the facial muscles in a semblance of humorless laughter from which the word sardonic was taken.

Witness Slayer Is Ruled Insane

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—George Rivera, 28, accused of deliberately running down and killing a Jehovah's Witness from Roseburg, Ore., was committed yesterday to Atascadero State Hospital for the criminally insane.

Rivera tried to run a busload of Jehovah's Witnesses off a downtown street during their convention here Sept. 3. When the bus driver and Harold Mather, 38, of Roseburg stepped from the bus to investigate, police said Rivera rammed his car into Mather.

Man Jailed In Bad Check Case

James Junior Fowler, 37, of Concord, was arrested yesterday by Marin County sheriff's officers on a charge of repaying an $1,100 loan from Jack L. Harte, 799 St. Francis Drive, Novato, with a bad check.

According to Inspector Guido Battaglia of the sheriff's office, Harte said he loaned Fowler, his employee, the cash to make a down payment on a home, but that the purchase fell through. Battaglia said the bank reported there never was enough money in Fowler's account to cover the check, passed June 12.

Fowler was held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $2,625 bail.

SISTER BECOMES SERGEANT

Police Inspector Patrick Orsono (left) presents sergeant stripes to Sister Prisca of Utica, N.Y. County's Fire Chief Must Retire At 60

Marin's county fire chief must retire at 60, along with all other "safety members" in county employment, the Marin County Retirement Board ruled yesterday.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom at 51 has nine years to go before compulsory retirement. However, he sought to have his job classified as outside the "safety member" group under the countys new retirement plan, to permit retirement at 65 instead of 60. He contended his job was mainly administrative, not "active fire suppression."

"I can't see how anyone can say the fire chief is not engaged in active fire suppression," declared board member John V. Bacigalupi. His fellow members agreed.

The compulsory retirement at 60 will remove from the sheriff's department several who had hoped to postpone retirement at least a few months. They are among nine whose Nov. 1 retirements were announced yesterday by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.

The board ruled these men, along with county firemen, are not eligible for "two-year grace" or even "two-month grace," the retirement board ruled.

Among those retiring Nov. 1 will be Deputy Sheriff Floyd Middagh, chairman of the retirement board.

"We fought for retirement and we got it," said Sheriff Mountanos. "Now we'll abide by the letter of the law."

Two Injured In Head-On Crash

A head-on automobile collision in Sausalito last night sent two persons to Marin General Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises.

David E. De Bernardi, 35, of San Francisco, driver of one car, received a cut lip and cut left leg. His passenger, Karen Donaldson, 22, of 207 Hawthorne Avenue, Larkspur, whose head struck the windshield, was treated for a cut forehead and cuts on both legs.

Police said the accident happened at 10:55 p.m. on Bridgeway near Pine Street. The second vehicle was driven by Thomas Wallace, who was not injured.

Sausalito Extends Interim Ordinance

Sausalito City Council last night extended the interim use permit ordinance to Jan. 20, 1964.

The vote was unanimous with all councilmen present except Councilman Howard Sievers. The subject was the sole item taken up at a special meeting, said Mayor Paul Micou.

There are hundreds of varieties of sedge, a grasslike plant which grows in marshes. Ancient Egyptians used pith from the stems to make papyrus.

Carabao For Peace Corps

HILO, Hawaii (AP)—A brace of carabao—traditional beasts of burden in Pacific and Asian countries—have been sent to the Peace Corps training center on Hawaii island.

The animals, a 15-year-old bull and a 10-year-old cow, arrived in Hilo by barge from Oahu Island, 200 miles away, and were trucked inland to a rice paddy next to a model Asian village.

Corps volunteers are training in Hawaii under simulated conditions and thought the long - horned beast would add another touch of realism.

Most corpsmen from the Hilo facility wind up in Asian countries.

A porpoise can swim 35 miles an hour and can, if he chooses, leap 10 feet above the surface of the water. Since porpoises weigh an average of more than 100 pounds, they are among the most agile of mammals.

Clausen Moves To Halt Logging

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) today moved to keep the ax from falling on timber in the southern section of the Point Reyes National Seashore.

He phoned Donald Falk of Eureka, attorney for Trio Lumber Co. which has contracted the timber rights, asking a two week delay in the lumbering and sent telegrams to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Secy. of Interior Stuart L. Udall, asking a speedup in condemnation proceedings.

Owns Lumber Co. of Bodega Bay has a sub-contract with Trio to cut 1,500 acres of timber. Donald Owens, owner of the company, said his men would start work as soon as weather permitted.

The timber is on the Palomarin Ranch, Bolinas Palisades, and property owned by Boyd Stewart of Olema. Timber rights on the land are held by William Sweet of Oregon.

Decision to go ahead with the lumbering came after Sweet and federal negotiators failed to agree on a price for the timber rights.

In a telegram to Falk, Clausen said:

"Hereby request two week delay in cutting by Trio Lumber pending negotiation with National Park Service. Urge vigorous effort to reach agreement on timber rights to preserve beauty of Point Reyes National Seashore."

In telegrams to Udall and Kennedy, Clausen said:

Rare Burial Mound Found

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — A retired steel worker who is an amateur archaeologist has uncovered what may be one of the most unusual Indian mounds ever found in this southeast Ohio area.

"It's quite unusual to find two skeletons buried side-by-side," says Ernest R. Sutton. "Even more is that the man's bones (the other is believed to be a woman) were buried in a stone tomb.

Sutton thinks the male, buried on his side and surrounded by shells, may have been a chief and the woman his wife. Earlier, other remains were found above them, lying practically parallel, with the heads in reverse position.

History Repeats At This Library

An employee, Dorothy Sinclair, was telling another employee, Edward Mantler, how wind had shattered a west window pane in the reference room 20 years ago.

As she spoke, there was a noise on the first floor. In the reference room, the wind had shattered a west window pane.

NO ONE ANSWERS DOOR

Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu arrived in Washington, D.C., last night hoping to see her father, former Vietnamese Ambassador Tran Van Choung. No one answered the door at his home. The former envoy was in New York City. He said he was to return to Washington today but would not see his daughter. Granddaughter Le Thuy is ringing bell. Press secretary To Ngoc Thach is at right.

Novato Councilman Will Be Selected

Four Novato City Council members will meet in closed session at 5:30 p.m. today in the Novato Community House to select a fifth member of the council.

Mayor M. E. Babe Silva called the meeting after he polled Councilmen John Angeloni, Everett Pozzi and Lucile Cannon and learned that all could attend.

The meeting will be to select a successor to Councilman Howard Schoof, who has resigned effective Nov. 1.

City Atty. Clark M. Palmer, questioned by the Independent-Journal, said the mayor had not asked him for an opinion as to legality of a closed session to make a choice for an elective position. State law prohibits closed meetings of city councils except to hire, fire, or hear charges against employees or officials.

Schoof was elected in April, 1962. His term will expire in April, 1966.

Silva said the selection would be made from among eight names submitted to councilmen: Wayne Womack, Charles R. Johnson, Arnold Heise, Alton Lerch, Robert Johnson, Eugene Trombley, Robert D. Carrow, and Jack Adams.

Courtroom Drama After Lights Out

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — "All rise," said the bailiff as Judge Lester L. Barrett swept into Baltimore County Circuit Court.

As the lawyers and spectators got to their feet, the courtroom was plunged into darkness. Judge Barrett's robe had caught on an electrical switch near the door.

As the lights came on again, attorney Fred D. Weisgal said: "Your honor, that was the most dramatic entrance I've ever seen."

U.S. Commonwealth

Light Plane Ports Held Neglected

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Assemblyman Tom Carrell (D-San Fernando) says airports for light planes should receive the same attention that is lavished on the state's highways.

Carrell, listing results of recent joint Senate-Assembly interim transportation committee hearings in Redding, said that shrinkage in the number of small airports is alarming.

"Every time a light plane port is closed because of its land value as a potential subdivision, the inconvenience to the private flier is compounded," he declared.

"We have taken care of the needs of the motorist," Carrell said, "and it is time that we do something immediately to preserve the economic, recreational and community needs of airport users."

Woman Must Face Trial For Forgery

Mrs. Grace Mauras, 38, of San Jose, must face trial in Marin County Superior Court on a charge of forging a $135 check given to a San Rafael dentist in December, Judge Harold J. Haley ruled yesterday in Marin Municipal Court after a preliminary hearing.

Mrs. Mauras, 38, of San Jose, was arrested Oct. 8 on the charge by San Rafael police, shortly after she was released from Agnew State Hospital.

Notary Commissioned

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Homer A. Williams, 25 Oakview Drive, San Rafael.

AREA POPULATIONS

Supervisorial District No. 2, the Ross Valley area represented by William D. Fusselman, now has the biggest population.

But by 1965, it will be surpassed by District 1 (San Rafael area represented by Byron W. Leydecker) by about 2,000 persons, according to population projections prepared by the Marin County planning department.

District	1960	1965	1970
1	35,922	48,620	61,320
2	46,934	53,115	59,295
3	37,100	43,955	50,810
4	2,641	3,215	3,790
5	24,223	34,175	42,610
TOTALS	146,820	183,080	217,825

AREAS

districts but be elected at large.

Leydecker explained this would require a county charter. The county has general law government with such requirements as districts and district representation set by state legislature. In 1958 Marin voters turned down a county charter. It included election of supervisors at large.

Leydecker said, however, that the attitude has changed since 1958 and he believes the proposal would be approved now.

"I have to be Little Sir Echo on that," Behr said.

Gnoss said he believes the charter would have passed in 1958 if it had been more carefully worked out.

All supervisors praised work done by its committee on redistricting, which recommended several boundary changes. Under this plan, the Fourth District would take some territory from the Fifth, which in turn would take some territory from the First.

A listener asked Leydecker if he did not think Terra Linda's community interests lay more with San Rafael than Novato. Leydecker said he likes this district just the way it is.

Behr said he had a simpler solution, but did not voice it over the air.

After the program, he told he would be for taking the Fairfax area from the Second District and the San Geronimo Valley area from the Fifth District, adding them to the Fourth District, thus adding a large population but not much territory to West Marin.

Other districts could stay pretty much as they are except that the Third District might take a southern portion of the Second District, Behr said. The Bolinas-Stinson Beach area could either stay in his Third District or go into Ludy's fourth. It would not make much difference in terms of population.

The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast from tape ecording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

National Park Improvement Plan 'Success'

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK (UPI)—The mission 66 improvement program was claimed a success by National Park Service Director Conrad L. Wirth at a meeting of park superintendents here yesterday.

Wirth said the program which ends in fiscal 1966 has "accomplished much and we have learned a great deal." The 10-year expansion program was set up to meet the requirements of an expected 80 million visitors to the national parks by 1966.

The directors also called for further long range planning involving general park use, visitor impact, park management, interpretive centers, training and research.

The park supervisors meeting will end at a dinner tomorrow with an address by Secretary of the Interior Steward L. Udall.

New College Prep School Is Planned

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Establishment of a new college preparatory school, the Athenian school, on land adjoining Mount Diablo State Park was announced today by Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, the University of California's president emeritus.

Dr. Sproul is chairman of the board of trustees of the new school scheduled to open in September, 1965.

Dyke Brown, former Ford Foundation vice president, is the school's director. He said its primary aim will be "academic excellence."

The school will include grades nine to 12 with first classes for boys only. Transition to a co-educational school is planned later.

Open in 1965 with from 30 to 50 boys in grades nine and 10, the development goal in a school of 500 or more students and 65 or more faculty, Brown said.

Stolen Purse Of Woman Turns Up In Canal

A purse stolen from a San Rafael woman by a youth who knocked her down on the sidewalk last Friday night was found today in the San Rafael Canal.

Missing was the $1.30 in change which Mrs. Rokuku Nott, 34, of 210 H Street had in the purse when she was attacked, but the rest of the contents appeared intact, said Inspector Thomas Cheetham of San Rafael police.

The purse was found about 10:15 a.m. today by a woman, Inspector Cheetham said. She saw it in the canal beside San Pedro Road.

Mrs. Nott was one of two women victims last week of a youth who knocked them down, grabbed their purses, and ran.

He was seen leaving the attack of Mrs. Nott on Fifth Avenue, and believed to have driven from the area in a late model metallic green Dodge.

Metallic green Dodges, according to Marin County's two Dodge dealers, account for only two per cent of sales, on a color basis. They can be traced, the dealers said, through factory or dealer records.

Neither of the dealers, Jerry Hannan of Shamrock Motors and John Angeloni of Nave's Garage, has been contacted by San Rafael police, they reported. Both dealers said they could not remember "offhand" selling any cars of that color in the past year.

The attacker first robbed Mrs. Reba Van Allen Kelly, 75, of 519 Fifth Avenue Oct. 8 when she was walking home after attending church services. Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Nott said the youth was wearing a beige coat and black pants. Both women were injured.

Fort Louisburg, French citidel in Nova Scotia, was razed by the British in 1760 with the thoroughness of an earthquake.

Episcopal College Due UOP Campus

STOCKTON (AP) — The 112-year-old Methodist - supported University of the Pacific announced today that the Episcopal Church will establish a college on the campus.

St. Michael's College, to be financed by individual donors, will be a four-year, liberal arts, coeducational college and is expected to open in 1965.

The college will be part of the cluster campus in the Oxford-Cambridge tradition being developed at the university.

St. Michael's will be an autonomous undergraduate liberal arts college in the university and all its students also will be students at the university.

The Right Rev. Russell S. Hubbard, bishop of Spokane and president of the Province of the Pacific of the Episcopal Church, will be chairman of the board for St. Michael's College.

Mental Health Advisers Plan To Push Working Schedule

Marin's mental health advisory board last night set up a fast-moving work schedule aimed at coming up with specific recommendations by Dec. 1.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors set up the seven-man advisory board on Sept. 3, giving it the job of evaluating the county's mental health needs, services, facilities and special problems.

The advisory board, under chairman Mrs. Daniel A. Collins of Mill Valley, set up this work schedule:

Oct. 23—Meet in room 413 of the Civic Center to consider replies received on questionnaires sent to mental health groups and agencies.

Oct. 30—Meet with a consultant of the state department of mental hygiene and Dr. Harold Chope, director of health and welfare in San Mateo. Draft a tentative program for mental health for Marin, then publicize the program.

Nov. 13—Hold a hearing to get public reaction. The supervisors chambers at the Civic Center would be used for the public hearing if supervisors approve.

Nov. 20—Meet again to refine the program on the basis of the public hearing. Other meetings may be called if needed to refine the program.

Dec. 1—Report to the supervisors with a complete set of recommendations.

Next week the advisory board will ask the supervisors for funds to hire a statistician to tabulate the replies received to the questionnaires.

Camera Is Stolen

Albert S. Hook, visiting from Palos Verdes Estates, Los Angeles County, told sheriff's officers a $400 35-millimeter camera was stolen from his automobile yesterday while it was parked in the parking lot at Muir Woods National Monument.

Saroyan Play Treatment 'Beautiful'

By BRUCE COLEMAN

The sad story of an out-of-luck Negro gambler and his girl is beautifully played by Henri Brown and Marguerite Ray in William Saroyan's "Hello, Out There," now showing on stage at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Clubhouse.

One of three one-act plays being presented by the Tamalpais Valley Players, it will be seen again tomorrow and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and again next weekend.

Brown and Miss Ray startle you with their naturalness. Miss Ray, a vibrant person, seems to have some sort of magic running through her which is fast-catching to the audience.

Gambler Brown, jailed on rape charges, is visited by the jail cook, Miss Ray. They fall in love, Brown saying, "I've been lonesome all my life" and Miss Ray the same. "They should pay just to look at you, to breathe the air you breathe," Brown tells Miss Ray (who earns 50 cents a day).

Brown and Miss Ray are very compelling in the tragic story which points up the social "revolution" going on in this nation today.

Jane Healey, Dick Miller and Alan Burdick play brief but effective supporting roles in the play directed by Margaret Kelly.

The other two plays are comedies: Anton Chekhov's "The Marriage Proposal" and Noel Coward's "Ways and Means."

The latter features two Tamalpais Valley masters of funny business—Zesty Shirley Taldo and Dapper Dick Dawe. They are winners.

W. F. Thurston Jr. is convincing as the naive, eye-rolling thief. Beth Heine, Michael Geisler, Donna Pittsey, Winnifred Nadler and Dick Miller lend support. Jack Adams directs, assisted by Benita Truman.

Both Morrie Batz (Stepan Stepanovich) and Louetta Broderick (his daughter, Natalia) jostle the pants off suitor Bill Kelly. Kelly's palpitating heart palpitated overly much, we thought, but Batz and Broderick are outstanding.

Don Cantin is the producer, with Joe Allen and Oz Oswald on sets; Clyde Preble, sound; Jean Solomon, properties, and Jay Irving, technical director.

It may be the last drama in the 36-year-old, newly-painted TVIC Hall, since the hall is slated to be closed in March to make way for the Coyote Creek flood project. If it doesn't close, as Archy says, "There's more than one dance in the old dame yet."

HARDLY A SOU — Dick Dawe and his wife, played by Shirley Taldo, try to talk W. F. Thurston Jr. (center) into a bit of thievery in order to repay money lost on the gambling tables of the French Riviera. The farce, Noel Coward's "Ways and Means," is one of three one-act plays being produced by the Tamalpais Valley Players this weekend and next. (John Wicker photo)

Sleeping Dollars

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bedding is the biggest and most profitable merchandise line in a furniture store, reports the retail department of the ANPA Bureau of Advertising. It accounts for 9 to 12 per cent of a furniture store's business.

Watershed Project Really Pays Off

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) —Farmers near Cheyenne undertook the Sandstone creek watershed project to stop damaging floods —and found they had a profitable project on their hands.

Government sources say the irrigated area now supports 14 families earning $200,000 a year, against six families earning $40,000 a year previously. And the fishing is good now too.

TANK GOES THROUGH PACES

HEARING SET ON HIGH SCHOOL SITE

Bolinas Area Would Be Served But Tam District Says 'Not Invading Tomales'

Tamalpais High School District trustees Monday night will hear a report on a proposal for a high school in the Bolinas area.

The school, according to the county planning department, could "conveniently serve" students living in the Tomales High School District south of Olema.

Tamalpais Supt. Chester G. Carlisle said today, however, that the Tam district is not seeking to invade territory of the Tomales district. The report is to be heard, he said, "as a convenience to the county planning department," which prepared it.

A'leen Runkle, then senior planner in the county planning department, wrote a letter to Superintendent Carlisle on Oct. 1 in which she pointed out:

"The Tamalpais Union High School District encompasses the Bolinas-Stinson Beach area and the lower portion of Olema Valley, which could support a high school of some 1,570-1,700 pupils when completely built up.

Another 250-300 high school pupils who could be conveniently served by this school would be living in the Tomales Joint Union High School District south of Olema."

A high school site in the area within Point Reyes National Seashore was shown on the Bolinas-Stinson Beach Master Plan, approved by the county board of supervisors in 1961. It is shown also on the new West Marin Master Plan which includes the same area.

Miss Runkle, who has since retired from the county planning department, in her Oct. 1 letter requested Carlisle to let the department know what steps Tamalpais High School District wished to take "in arriving at an ultimate approval of a high school site" in the area.

The site proposed is within the National Seashore, about one mile northwest of the junction of Bolinas Road and Shoreline Highway.

David Van Pelt, county principal planner, will present the proposal to the school board at its meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in district headquarters at Redwood High School.

Also on Monday's agenda are two other site matters: (1) Selection of an architect or architects to draw plans for proposed high schools in the San Geronimo Valley and Tiburon, and (2) a proposed citizens architectural advisory committee to represent the district.

The district has started condemnation proceedings to buy the Ottolini Ranch for the San Geronimo site, has initated a survey to determine boundaries of a site in Belveron Gardens, Tiburon, and several years ago bought 30 acres in Marin City for about $60,000 for a high school.

Hazard At Flower Show Creates Buzz

SAN REMO, Italy (AP) — The fire department had to be called out to battle an invasion of bees which swarmed into this Italian Riviera resort.

Firemen sprayed them and drove them out of parks where they had been attracted by an annual show of flowers grown on the Riviera for export.

Parley On Almcrants Held Making Progress

Mill Valley's committee of five last night discussed the proposed firing of City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants with city councilman William E. Secor, after which Secor reported "considerable progress."

Secor said the committee met at his home from 8 p.m. yesterday to 12:30 a.m. today to discuss the problem. "We agreed we have made considerable progress," he said. "We are continuing to work on it."

It was the second such meeting of the citizens committee, the first being held Oct. 11 with Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks. No further meeting hasa been set prior to Monday's city council meeting, Secor said. Three councilmen, Sheeks, George D. Monardo and Secor, have announced they intend to fire Almcrants at Monday's meeting of the council.

The committee consists of Robert R. Laughead, chairman; Robert D. Huber, William A. Hamilton, John Finn III, and Harry H. Johnson.

Almcrants resigned Sept. 27, then withdrew his resignation Sept. 30, after which the three councilmen stated they proposed to oust the city manager.

CHP Uniform Helps Save Patrolman

SANTA ROSA (AP) — Unlike most highway patrolmen, Don E. Tannehill wears his uniform home to Santa Rosa from work instead of leaving it in the patrol office locker. Today he was glad he did.

Tannehill, 38, said this is what happened as he approached the fog-shrouded outskirts of Santa Rosa in his old blue coupe:

He stopped in response to a blinking light, then felt a .45 automatic pistol jabbed in his ribs. The gunman, who also had a rifle in his other hand, got in Tannehill's car and curtly ordered:

"Just start driving. I'll tell you where. This is it."

But a few minutes later, the hitchhiker noticed the shoulder pad, said "I see I haven't got a chance," and handed over both weapons. As he did, the rifle discarged a bullet into the floorboard.

Double Attraction At Roman Fountain

ROME (AP)—The famous Trevi fountain in the heart of Rome is as much an attraction for local people as it is for tourists.

Foreigners flock to see the statuary and water sprays and to throw their coins in the traditional gesture to assure their return. Romans come to see the tourists.

Girls Form Sort Of Royal Family

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—When pretty Carolyn Jelley of Sidney, Ohio, was named Angus Queen at the State Fair, she succeeded someone she knows pretty well—her sister Kathleen.

And who did Kathleen succeed last year? Herself. She has been Angus Queen the past two years.

Of the more than two million women 65 and over who maintained their own households either alone or with nonrelatives in 1960, about one million received incomes of less than $1,000. Only about 30,000 had incomes of $10,000 or more, a U.S. Census study shows.

TAM UNIFICATION MEETINGS PLANNED

11 Public Sessions Scheduled In Each District Under High School Board

The first public meeting to discuss a proposed unification of Tamalpais High School District will be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday at Sir Francis High School in San Anselmo.

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization last night agreed on a schedule of 11 such meetings, starting next Wednesday and continuing through Nov. 18.

Tamalpais High School District is now made up of 11 elementary school districts, with the high school district superimposed over all of them. Each district has its own governing board.

Edwin L. Blackmore, assistant secretary of the county committee on school district organization, said one of the main questions to be discussed at the public meetings will be, "is the total high school district acceptable for unification?" Unification would make a single governing board responsible for all schools, kindergarten through high school.

"Of course, other alternatives will probably be discussed, too, at the public meetings," said Blackmore, "but the county augmented committee has decided that unification would provide a more efficient and continuously planned program for all grades in all the districts."

The augmented committee's tentative recommendation is this:

The entire Tam High area should be unified, and one governing board of seven members established. Seven trustee areas should be established, and governing board members elected at large.

Wednesday, Oct. 23—Drake High School, 8 p.m.; Thursday, Oct. 24—Central School, Sausalito, 8 p.m.; Tuesday, Oct. 29—Lagunitas School, 8 p.m.; Wednesday, Oct. 30 — Park School, Mill Valley, 8 p.m.

Monday, Nov. 4—Ross School, 8 p.m.; Tuesday, Nov. 5—Bel Aire School, Tiburon, 8 p.m.; Wednesday, Nov. 6—Henry C. Hall School, Larkspur, 7:30 p.m.; Tuesday, Nov. 12—Manor School, Fairfax, 8 p.m.; Wednesday, Nov. 13 — Nicasio School, 8 p.m.; Thursday, Nov. 14—Kent School, Kentfield, 8 p.m.; Monday, Nov. 18—Stinson Beach Community Center, 8 p.m.

One of the 11 meetings will be declared as the "official public hearing" required by law, said Blackmore. The date for the official public hearing has not been set yet because Blackmore is awaiting word from the county counsel on the legal requirements of publishing notices.

At suggestion of Robert E. Rogers, the committee decided that local school boards should be invited to conduct the public meetings.

"The county committee can open the meeting and then turn it over to the local board if they so desire," said chairman Earl Marshall.

Last night's meeting was delayed until 8:45 because only five of 11 committee members showed up at 8 p.m. Two more arrived at 8:45 to make the quorum.

Koehler said most people regard public meetings as an instrument to study and work out proposals. "Whereas I get the impression here that the public meetings are to present a tentative proposal already decided on."

Chairman Marshall said the final proposal is yet to come, and the people can reject or approve.

"At the last augmented meeting, they decided to give a draft of the proposal to the districts before the tentative proposal was drawn up," said Souza. "Where is the draft?"

Blackmore promised the draft would be sent to the various districts before the public meetings begin.

The committee also voted to adopt an organized program of trying to inform the public before the public meetings begin next Wednesday.

Mrs. A. E. Larson and Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace reported they have found professional writers and public relations men who are willing to volunteer their time to help disseminate information on school district organization.

Mrs. Dorothy Brown of Dixie District, who has been elected to replace Mrs. Adele J. Alpers on the committee in January, sat in the audience section last night. She said the county committee may be "over-rating" its role of "selling" unification. I think it's the local board's job to inform the public, too," said Mrs. Brown.

Next meeting of the county committee on school district organization is scheduled for Nov. 20.

New Shop Center Popular

At least 3,000 cars took people to Value World in Larkspur Plaza at its opening yesterday, Police Chief Howard Clark estimated today.

Clark spent most of the time from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on duty with Patrolman James D. Neubert regulating traffic at Magnolia Avenue and Doherty Drive.

Clark said: "The parking lot holds 300 cars and it must have been filled and emptied 10 times."

Sausalito Planners Line Up Against Illuminated Signs

Sausalito planning commissioners agreed last night that they will support any ordinance which prohibits illuminated signs—red, yellow or green—if they constitute a traffic or safety hazard.

The commission also said it will support any regulations aimed at avoiding advertising or signs which clutter up and obstruct the natural scenery and beauty of Marin County.

The Marin Planning Commission had asked the commissioners to give their views on a county zoning ordinance on red lighting on any sign.

The proposed zoning ordinance hearing was continued, chairman Mel Wax said, to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the city hall, at which time the commission expects to take final action on the ordinance.

Council Gets Daveler Back On Road Again

By FRED WYATT

Larkspur Mayor Lesly A. Daveler detoured off the city council agenda for nearly one-half hour last night until the four other councilmen returned him to the road—which was a list of 10 road matters.

Shortly after the meeting began a little after 8 p.m. Daveler veered into sanitary district taxes of Larkspur and other areas until silenced by a 4-1 vote, Daveler dissenting.

"I came here at 8 o'clock to do this agenda. If you want to go into this until 9 or 9:30 you can count me out," snapped Councilman Neil R. Brixon.

"Let's get on the agenda we came for," agreed Councilman James J. Lienkaemper.

Councilman Robert J. Smith, seconded by Brixon, moved to table the sewer discussion, although Daveler contended, "We are paying through the nose to sanitary district 1," and argued, "This is the third night I've been pressing for this."

The session was the first adjourned meeting held under a new plan to discuss a single item broken into divisions to keep it from cluttering regular meetings. Councilmen had agreed on the plan to handle many items unfinished in earlier meetings.

Getting back to the subject of roads, the council:

1. Adopted an ordinance abandoning a portion of Eden Street.

2. Received a report from City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper on street maintenance. Piper's program of minimizing patching and effecting overlays wherever practical was praised by Marker and Brixon.

3. Agreed to Piper's recommendation for "pay as you go" financing of street projects in a deficiency report he submitted last May.

4. Accepted the city engineer's proposal to improve upper Madrone Avenue as a one-way street ending in a loop development.

5. Discussed without decision plans to expand Magnolia Avenue, a two-lane road, into four lanes north of Hillview Gardens.

6. Continued discussion of street encroachment permits.

7. Took no action on Daveler's suggestion to consider sweeping unincorporated Greenbrae, after Councilmen Lienkaemper and Brixon said it should not be considered since residents had made no request.

8. Agreed to seek a joint meeting Nov. 5 with the planning commission and Pacific Gas and Electric Co. representatives to discuss a street lighting plan.

9. Heard Piper report the city arranges for contractors to repair major hazards in uneven sidewalks at residents' expense. "Why don't we approve this as a policy?" asked Marker. No one replied.

After discussion of a report by Councilmen Smith and Lienkaemper on future agenda, the council decided to discuss personnel at a meeting Nov. 20. Daveler named Brixon and Lienkaemper to devise the agenda with the city manager.

The Larkspur council also voted 4-1, Smith dissenting, $2,800 to keep temporary fireman Theodore Berrum on employment to next July 1; and 3-2, Daveler and Smith dissenting, $1,320 for temporary added city hall clerical help.

The meeting ran to 11:36 p.m.

Three Weekly Papers Get New Formats

Publication of the Ross Valley Times, Larkspur-Corte Madera Times and Pelican in tabloid size, with an increased number of pages in each newspaper, began today.

The new format for all three weekly papers was announced by editors Robert J. and Martha M. Glessing of the Northern California Publishing Co., San Anselmo.

Keep Young Men In City, Novato Told

A plea to get industry and jobs for the young men of the community was voiced this morning to the Novato Chamber of Commerce by Thomas P. Ludcke, community development consultant of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

"Keep your young men in the community; they are the greatest asset for the future," he said.

Novato needs to get industry to hold these young men, he said, and the community must work together to attract industry.

He listed three things that industries look at before choosing a location: Community development, industrial development, and recreational development.

Ludcke stated that a good example of what communities could do was the "Congress for Community Progress," organized in Santa Rosa last spring to help push through bond issues at the May election.

Recreation and the attraction of tourists is one field which Novato could develop, he added.

Deceased Heavyweight Only 153 Pounds—Not 178

BALTIMORE (UPI)—A doctor from the Baltimore medical examiner's office said today that the body of deceased boxer Ernie Knox weighed only 153 pounds—considerably less than the 178 pounds announced at the weigh-in for his fatal bout.

Dr. Charles S. Petty said Knox' body at the city morgue was weighed three times to make sure that observation was correct.

Knox, 26-year-old Baltimore hod-carrier and part-time boxer, died yesterday morning from brain injuries after being knocked out Monday night by heavyweight Wayne Bethea of New York.

The weights for that bout were announced at 205 for Bethea and 178 for Knox.

Upon learning of the latest disclosures, the Baltimore states attorney said that all state boxing commission records of the fight between Knox and Bethea would be presented to a special session of the city grand jury today.

A summons for the bout records was directed to Jack Cohen, secretary of the boxing commission, and was based on information State's Attorney William J. O'Donnell received from the medical examiner's office.

"We decided we'd better show the grand jury what we have so far and let it decide if further action is necessary," O'Donnell said.

Dr. Petty, in commenting on the discrepancy between the weight of Knox's body and that announced at Monday's weigh-in said:

"I would consider it unusual if the victim lost more than five or six pounds in the two days that elapsed between the time he was weighed for the fight and the time I weighed the body. All you had to do was look at the body to see that it didn't weigh 178 pounds.

"It is inescapable," Dr. Petty continued, "that the guy (Knox) just didn't weigh that much."

The city medical examiner's office ruled the death as accidental" and listed cause of death as a "sub-dural hematoma," a severe brain injury.

A special meeting of the three-man commission was slated to hear testimony late today from ring officials, doctors and others having knowledge of events connected with Maryland's first boxing fatality in 39 years.

Maryland Governor J. Millard Tawes issued a directive to Commission Chairman Charles Rosenbaum for a full report on the ninth-round knockout of Knox at Baltimore's Coliseum by the heavier and more experienced Bethea.

Commission Secretary Cohen explained that "all facts will be assembled." However, he doubted that it would be necessary to ask Bethea and Manager Bobby Gleason to come from New York for today's meeting.

Knox was the eighth boxer, amateur or professional, to die this year from ring injuries.

City Councilman Leon A. Rubenstein said he would introduce a bill in the city council next Monday to ban boxing in Baltimore.

PRESSBOX VIEWS

By JACK HANLEY

Halas Has Trouble Convincing Writers He's Really Worried

Jack Hanley

Try as hard as he might, George Halas hasn't been able to whip up an ounce of sympathy for his big, burly Bears who have the 49ers pegged for their sixth straight victim this Sunday in Kezar Stadium.

Halas personally couldn't even convince a cub reporter, watching the Bears work out in the Valley of the Moon, that he really was worried.

"Look at them," said Halas to the cub, "as complacent a bunch as I ever did see in my 43 years in pro football. They think all they have to do is throw their helmets on the field Sunday and the 49ers are going to run in fright."

"Mr. Halas," said the cub, "they look like they're hitting pretty hard to me."

"Son," said Halas in his best paternal manner, "I've been around a little longer than you have and I tell you they are complacent. Complacency has beaten better teams than this one. And it is going to beat them Sunday if they don't snap out of it. Now, you write that and you'll have a good story."

"MR. HALAS," said the cub, "today is my day off. I just came out to see the workout."

Halas then summoned the team's press agent, Dan Desmond, and was overheard passing along these instructions: "Dan, you get down to the Bay Area right away and convince the writers I'm really worried about all this complacency around here while the 49ers are going through relaxed workouts."

"Yes, sir," said Desmond dutifully and started to take off immediately when Halas halted him for further instructions.

"AND DAN," added Halas, "be sure and stress that point about the 49ers being relaxed. When a team is relaxed that's the time to look out."

Some hours later when we got back to our office, the telephone rang. It was Desmond.

"Halas," started Desmond.

"I know," we rudely interrupted, "Halas is worried. Maybe the 49ers with their 0-5 record should be the favorites Sunday, not the Bears with their 5-0."

ROUGH TEST AHEAD FOR WILDCATS

49ers Deny Chris Sure Of 1964 Job

Vic Morabito, president of the San Francisco 49ers, has denied a published report that head coach Jack Christiansen has been assured of his job in 1964.

Morabito said, "Jack was given no such assurances. However, we sincerely hope things do work out and that possibly he can be with us next year."

The 49er chief indicated that a final decision would not be made before December.

The 49ers, now 0-5, take on Chicago Sunday at Kezar Stadium. The Bears have won five straight.

Coach Christiansen indicated at Redwood City the 49ers hope to find a way to keep the dazzling Bear defense honest with some sort of running attack. The 49ers have so far gained 396 yards rushing — worst in the league. The Bears have only allowed 380 on the ground—also the lowest total in the league.

Dodgers Will Trade Moon, Skowron, Walls

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers plan to trade Willy Moon, Bill Skowron and Lee Walls in major deals, the Herald-Examiner said today.

Baseball writer Bob Hunter reported in a copyrighted dispatch from Palm Desert, Calif., where the Baseball-Celebrity golf tournament is under way, that he learned from a source who prefers anonymity:

Moon, veteran outfielder who did not start regularly for the Dodgers last season, will go to the Milwaukee Braves in exchange for right-handed pitcher Bob Shaw.

First baseman Skowron, who came to the Dodgers from the New York Yankees but whose batting power was not up to expectations during the regular season, will go to the Washington Senators in exchange for cash, a pitcher, or both.

Utility man Lee Walls, used mostly as a pinch hitter, will go to the Los Angeles Angels for cash.

Moon is 33, Skowron 32 and Walls 31.

Hunter said Ken McMullen, 21, who played third base last season, will move to first base next year. This will enable the manager to platoon the left hander with right-handed Ron Fairly.

TARS GAIN ON PASS PLAY

College of Marin's Martin Baccaglio, an end, is hauled down by a San Francisco State J.V. defender during last Friday's game at College of Marin stadium after Baccaglio had caught a short pass from quarterback Bob Sparrow. The Tars won, 38-6. The gridders from Marin will open the Golden Valley Conference tomorrow night against Sierra College at COM stadium. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Hate Note At Home Of Cepeda

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A hate note was placed early today at the front door of Orlando Cepeda, the San Francisco Giants' first baseman.

The note addressed Cepeda as "Damn (obscenity) nigger," and said: "Go back to the cane fields—you and Mays."

Willie Mays is the Giants' star centerfielder.

Police officer Joe Collins said a man telephoned Taraval Station at 4 a.m. and said he had seen someone place an object at the front door of Cepeda's home on Pacheco Street.

CLUMP OF GRASS

Collins said he found a clump of grass, with roots and earth, at the door. The note, printed in ink on a piece of white paper 4 by 8 inches, was stuck in the grass.

Collins said he believed the telephone call was from the culprit to draw attention to his deed.

Collins said he thought Cepeda was out of the city.

KEY MAN IN BIG VICTORY

Drake's Tom Atnip Named Prep Of The Week By I-J

Tom Atnip, 6-2, 205-pound lineman for the Marin Athletic League's front-running Drake High School Pirates, has been selected as Prep of the Week by the Independent-Journal sports staff.

Atnip, a defensive lineman who was switched to both guard and tackle last Saturday against Redwood, was credited with being the key man on defense by Drake head coach Bob Franceschini. Drake won the game, 18-6.

A senior letterman, Atnip was playing middle guard when Dave Auerbach of Redwood crashed through right tackle for a 77-yard touchdown run for Redwood's lone TD. Atnip was then switched to defensive left tackle (the offensive right tackle spot) where Auerbach was making most of his yardage on short bursts.

"I believe Atnip was a key factor in stopping Auerbach from making any more big gains," said Franceschini. "I took the chance of (Paul) Ackerman making yardage up the middle to keep Auerbach from running the outside. That's why I moved Atnip from the middle to defensive left tackle.

Atnip suffered a freak injury on the second day of practice last year while he was holding a blocking dummy and the injury kept him out of Drake's first six games. He saw full action the remaining days of the 1962 season.

SRMA Football Team To Host Emery Gridders

The San Rafael Military Academy Cadets will be trying for their first victory of the season tomorrow afternoon when they host Emery High School on the Cadets' football field.

Kickoff is slated for 3:15.

The Cadets have lost three practice games and one Bay Counties League game so far this year without tasting victory. Most recent setback was last Friday when Cloverdale High downed SRMA 26-6 in a practice game.

San Rafael coach Larry Fulton will be hoping his fine pass-catching end, Jim Sulger, keeps hauling them in. He is the leading receiver on the Cadets' squad this year.

Belvedere Tennis Finals Scheduled

Finals of the Belvedere Tennis Club singles tournament will be held Sunday at the club, following some quarter and semi-final action in the men's division on Saturday.

In the women's division, Roberta Ferguson and Margaret Amark will play for the championship at noon on Sunday.

On Saturday, Les Graham and Robert Amark will play a semi-final match, and the winners of matches between Bill Gwinn-John Costello and Dimitry Vergun-Charles Auerbach will play in the other semi-final match.

The men's final match will be held Sunday at 1 p.m.

Europe's 200 remaining bison all live in zoos or carefully protected government preserves. The last wild ones are believed to have been killed during World War II in the forests of Lithuania.

The state of Parana in southern Brazil has rich red soil and usually mild climate; it produces more than half of Brazil's coffee. Tall pine trees and hardwood forests also supply much of the country's paper and lumber.

Mays Has Company In 'I'm All Pooped' Dept.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Willie Mays, who complained that baseball is a tiring bit of business, has company. The Milwaukee Braves' slugging Hank Aaron says he was exhausted at the end of the past season.

Aaron, who was named earlier in the week as baseball's slugging leader, also said last night he was not satisfied.

"Frankly, I'm disappointed I didn't win the Triple Crown the past year," said the Braves outfielder.

Aaron, who topped the sluggers with a .586 average on 370 total bases in 631 times at bat, also led the majors in runs batted in with 130. He tied the San Francisco Giants' Willie McCovey for home run honors with 44 and finished in a tie with the St. Louis Cardinals Dick Groat for third place in the batting derby on a .319 average. He also stole 31 bases.

The fatigue factor in baseball was spotlighted when the Giants' Mays collapsed at the plate and had to be rested as the National League pennant race was being resolved.

Aaron, who played in all but two of Milwaukee's 163 games, said he was just about exhausted at the end of the year.

Record World Series Pay

Independent-Journal Sports

20 Thursday, Oct. 17, 1963

NEW YORK (UPI)—In major league baseball it sometimes does not matter whether you win or lose but how many people you attract.

A case in point is the New York Yankees who were not quite an artistic success in the 1963 World Series, bowing to the Los Angeles Dodgers in four straight games. Yet it was disclosed yesterday by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick that the Yankee regulars will receive a record losers cut of $7,874.32 per man, or $485.14 more than New York got for defeating the Cincinnati Reds in the 1961 series.

To the victors go the bigger spoils, however, and so those Dodgers who were voted a full share will each receive a sum of $12,794 per capita, an all-time Series mark. Both sums are the result of the first $1 million player pool in history.

To achieve the record figure, which is $1,562.82 more than they earned for winning the 1959 Series from the Chicago White Sox, the Dodgers voted 32.8 shares, including 29 full cuts. The Yankees, on the other hand, voted 35.75 shares with 33 full cuts.

The Dodger-Yankee match also set a record for total receipts in a four-game series with a sum of $1,995,189.09, surpassing the 1954 Series between the Giants and Indians by $439,000.

Of the total player pool, 70 per cent was divided between the league champions, while the second place teams—the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League and the Chicago White Sox in the American—received 15 per cent. This figured to $2,278.09 per man for the Cards and $2,246.97 for the White Sox.

The third place San Francisco Giants and Minnesota Twins split 10 per cent of the pool with shares of $1,453.64 and $1,462.46, respectively. The Philadelphia Phillies earned $705.32 and the Baltimore Orioles $740.85 apiece for fourth place finishes.

Injuns May Choke On 'Cup Of Coffey'

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Coffey is ready! And this cup might prove to be much more potent than a quaff of firewater for the poor old Indian from the Stanford farm.

Coffey is Junior (instant), the wild bull from Dimmitt, Texas, who terrorized Pacific Coast football fields last fall as he battered his way to a near unanimous selection as All-Coast fullback.

Instant was prominently mentioned as an All-America potential before the 1963 grid season started. But he broke a bone in his foot on Labor Day and has not been able to help Washington's Huskies so far in the current football campaign.

But Junior has been blasting away during practice sessions this week and the word is that Washington faithful will get to see their hero perform Saturday when the Huskies entertain Stanford here before an expected capacity crowd of 55,000.

No less an authority than Iowa Athletic Director Forest Evashevski, the old Wolverine blocking back from Michigan who used to clear the way for Tommy Harmon, blames Washington's lackluster 1-3 won-lost record on Coffey's absence.

Evashevski was questioned about the sorry Husky performance against Iowa here two weeks ago when the local favorites lost 17-7. He replied that he thought Washington Coach Jim Owens had planned his offense around Coffey. When the bruising fullback was injured Owens had to start improvising.

Owens' improvising, of course, seems to be bearing fruit. The Huskies caught fire last week after losing their first three games and bombed Oregon State 34-7.

Charlie Browning, who took over the Washington fullback spot when Coffey was injured, has averaged 4.8 yards per carry and Junior must prove that he can beat Browning out before he starts for the Huskies.

Just the same, the thought of seeing the scowling menace of Instant, is enough to start Washington supporters dreaming of a New Year's day trip to Pasadena.

Punt, Pass, Kick Contest Saturday

Boys 8 through 11 will be competing for prizes Saturday when the Punt, Pass and Kick competition for boys in the San Rafael and Ross Valley areas is held at 10 a.m. on San Anselmo's Memorial Park.

Top prize in the nationwide contest is a trip to Washington, D. C. and a chance to watch the National Football League championship game in person.

Ames Ford of San Rafael is sponsoring the local portion of the contest.

Jim Brown Overshadows All Others As Pro Of The Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown probably could be the National Football League's "Player of the Week" every week for the rest of the season. His brilliant performance against the New York Giants Sunday easily earned him recognition in the first weekly survey by the Associated Press.

It was strictly no contest for Brown who ran over the Giants and around the Giants for 123 yards and caught four passes for 86 yards in a three-touchdown afternoon.

The fact that the former Syracuse star had never enjoyed such great success at Yankee Stadium in previous visits by the Cleveland Browns probably prompted the flood of laudatory news stories and columns. Before the cheering stopped, Brown had been practically enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

Many New Yorkers figured the home season opened and closed in one spectacular effort by Brown against the Giants. Jimmy dove over the line from the one. He rambled 72 yards after taking a short screen pass from Frank Ryan. Then he left them with their mouths open with an awesome 32-yard jaunt through the heart of the Giants' proud defense, reversing himself and easing into the end zone with nobody close.

The Brown statistics are eye-catching. In 101 attempts covering five games he has gained 787 yards rushing. Only 50 more yards and he will have matched Joe Perry's all time record of 8,296 yards that took Joe 14 years to compile.

Sunday was a day of super performances in the NFL. Brown simply overshadowed all the others because it came in a game of vital importance in the Eastern Conference with the unbeaten challengers facing the defending champions in their home park.

Mike Ditka, the Chicago Bears' fine end, grabbed four touchdown passes, three from Bill Wade and one from Rudy Bukich. Big Mike caught nine in all against the Los Angeles Rams.

The St. Louis Cardinals had two candidates in this survey of writers who covered the games. Charlie Johnson completed 21 of 42 passes for 428 yards against Pittsburgh, including the game winner to Bobby Joe Conrad with five seconds to play. Jackie Smith of the Cards caught nine of Johnson's passes for 212 yards.

Sonny Jurgensen reclaimed the No. 1 quarterback job of the Philadelphia Eagles when he shattered Washington's defense with four TD passes.

No Cousy, But Celts Still Tops

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Boston Celtics don't have superstar Bob Cousy any longer, but otherwise things haven't changed much for the perennial champions of the National Basketball Assn.

The classy Celtics still have fabulous Bill Russell blocking shots, snaring rebounds and frustrating opponents. They still have a great defense, balanced scoring featuring a fast break, fine reserve strength . . . and Coach Red Auerbach, who remains fiery despite a $500 pre-season fine levied by the new NBA President J. Walter Kennedy.

7,264 FANS

With Kennedy included in the crowd of 7,264 fans who welcomed the Baltimore Bullets back to the NBA after a nine-year absence, Auerbach yelled, stomped his feet and flailed his arms as Boston easily whipped the Bullets 109-95 last night.

In other openers, Lee Shaffer's basket with nine seconds to play gave the Philadelphia 76ers a 117-115 victory over the Detroit Pistons, and the Cincinnati Royals whipped the St. Louis Hawks 112-93 with rookie Jerry Lucas contributing 23 points.

S.A. Softballers Make Challenge

The San Anselmo Fire Department softball team, fresh off a three-game wining streak, is trying to arrange an intercity tangle with the Fairfax Fire Department.

In season competition the San Anselmo nine defeated the San Anselmo Police Department by scores of 16-11 and 21-19, and the Fentfield Fire Department, 29-7.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

There's Much A Fisherman Can Do When Rainy Days Prevent Angling

STEVENS

There has been weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth among the fisher folk the last few days because of the inclemency of the weather hereabouts.

"We hade to cancel our annual outing," lamented one local club chairman. "How can anyone expect to go fishing in weather like this?" protested one of my contact men on Tuesday.

Well, there is one thing they and all others temporarily stymied can do. That is to go over their equipment; clean and oil the reels, inspect the rods for loosened guides—rewind or replace them, inspect them for nicks on the inside that might cut a line or fray a leader. They can test the lines for weakened sections, and overhaul the tackle box, sharpen hooks and such things. In short, concise English, they can prepare for a probable change in the type and locale of fishing.

ANOTHER two weeks and the coast waters will open for steelhead fishing. The huge schools of stripers which have been hanging around the S.F. Bay areas, will likely head upstream to the San Pablo Bay and the Suisun and up both the main rivers to perform the duty which they were born for—the propagation of the species. Others will come in from outside to replace those that have migrated upstream. Such is the biological urge that happens when there is a sustained spell of wet weather.

Chances are, if it rains hard enough and long enough, the coast streams such as the Russian, Gualala, Navarro and others, which may have been barbound, will open and the silver salmon and the grilse and—at last—the steelhead will come in from the ocean and furnish us the greatest possible sport with light tackle.

TO THE hunter of ducks and geese and coots and gallinules, the stormy weather can well be the herald of a mass migration of vast numbers of waterfowl from the northeast to the valleys, bays and private ponds of central and northern California; within easy driving distance to you and me. Yea, verily, brethren, curse not the inclemency of the present weather, but give thanks and prepare for the 1 o'clock whistle next Wednesday.

Remember — on Wednesday you must stay your trigger finger until 1 p.m., but on Thursday and thereafter you can make the welkin ring with shotgun blasts one-half hour before sunrise until sunset. Bag limit is six ducks per day and six in possession. You can have a brace of wood ducks and one hooded merganser in the bag of six birds, but nary a can or a redhead. You can also have six geese in the daily bag, not more than three of which may be of the dark species. One Ross's goose may be included in the daily take.

Makes Hole-In-One

Joseph Bendik of 2041 Carolyn Way, Novato, made a hole-in-one last Friday at Las Gallinas golf course on the 100-yard ninth hole.

A Remarkable Craft Is The Pelican Class Boat Built By Larkspur Man

He might have been speaking of "Chloe." She is lively and wholesome, yet not provocatively feminine. Her bottom is flat, she has an audacious flare and a remarkably "beefy" freeboard. Not exactly a lyrical vision.

To sum it up, she resembles a pudgy Pelican. However, that's exactly what she is—a Pelican Class boat. Which, in this case, is a 12-foot 2½ inch sailing dory with a six foot beam. With board down, she draws four feet, and four inches when it's up.

"CHLOE" WAS the first Pelican Class craft designed and built by William Short, a San Francisco Bay tugboat captain who resides with his wife Muriel in Larkspur.

"Built to meet the challenge of the Bay's changing moods, this little boat is a handy, fast centerboarder, said Bill. We intended her to be capable of crossing the Bay's main ship channel west of Alcatraz, from Marin to San Francisco, in most weather—and this can be quite a test for a 12 foot centerboarder, granted sailor has reasonable bay knowledge, and sailing skill. Now, many other Pelicans have been crossing this windy bay since Chloe's first test, and none have threatened to capsize—nor have any of them ever swamped."

He explained further, that originally, this small craft was to be used by his family of four to sail the bay, with the hope that she'd be sufficiently fast and pleasant for even an experienced sailor. "The hull was well designed to take advantage of modern monocoque hull rigidity and strength. Plywood was ideal for this type of integral construction," he added.

STRONGLY BUILT, yet light as possible too, she weighs approximately 325 pounds. This was accomplished through the use of ⅜" marine plywood for bottom, sides and decks. Actually, he developed his design from that famous Banks fishing dory. However, he thoughtfully gave her extra freeboard sheer, and beam. If she were truly elongated to her standard dory extreme, she's be almost 19 feet long.

This sailing cutie possesses a highly peaked lug rig. And the great flare and freeboard of her beamy topsides make her a remarkably safe centerboarder. "In a hard or accidental jibe," says Bill, "the lug rig will absorb the shock with surprising elasticity."

No one aboard a Pelican will feel obliged to stretch himself out of shape in a perpetual shower bath to keep this little craft from broaching.

Updated sets of plans for the Pelican have been requested by boat builders. They have gone to many states. Also to Ireland, Canada, Venezuela and Sweden. Authorization has been granted to eight professional builders.

COMMERCIALLY built Pelicans are available, either in finished or kit form. Three are currently on display at Baumann Brothers in Sausalito—two fiberglass and one of wood.

Articles about the Pelican have appeared in such national magazines as: Rudder, Skipper, and Motor Boating. Moreover, now Marin Pelican owners have formed an organization for social and Pelican racing affairs. They also publish an enthusiastic organ called The Pelican Post.

'TAILGATING' — A growing fad at football games is tailgating, shown above at last weekend's Princeton-Pennsylvania game. The custom—that of bringing lunch and beverages to eat before the game—is gaining popularity with American football fans. (AP Wirephoto)

New American Pastime For Football Fans—'Tailgating'

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — The frost is on the pumpkin, college football teams are banging plastic headgears every Saturday afternoon and thousands of people are indulging in a growing popular pastime: Tailgating.

Tailgating?

That's right, tailgating. It's as American as grilled hamburgers, ham-and-cheese-on-rye, hot dogs and cold beer—which, incidentally, are an integral part of the ritual.

To tailgate, all you need is a supply of the above items, plus perhaps a couple of folding chairs, buckets of ice and a plaid table cloth.

You don't even need a tailgate, the back end of a station wagon—although it helps.

Once it was the custom to pin a corsage of chrysanthemums on your best girl, bundle up in a raccoon coat and go to the football stadium an hour and a half before kickoff to listen to the bands and join in the cheers.

Not any more.

Now the custom is to back the family bus into the parking lot, throw open the tailgate (if you're fortunate enough to own a station wagon, otherwise the truck compartment) and haul out the victuals.

Then, in the shadow of the stadium with fans swarming by in clusters, follows a family picnic.

No one knows exactly how this autumn ritual originated but, until a better claim comes along Yale University is assuming the credit.

"It started with the Dartmouth game about 10 years ago," a Yale spokesman said. "Then it spread to the Princeton and Harvard games. Other schools in the Ivy League picked it up, and now it's almost universal."

It has been a boon to attendance. Whereas pop used to go to the games with a couple of pals from the office, now he takes the whole family. Often neighborhood and alumni groups make it a big outdoor party.

FIRST HAND REPORT

A Breath-Taking Ride With Parnelli Jones

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP)—I rode r-r-recently with P-P-Parnelli J-Jones.

"Don't bother with a helmet," said Rufus Parnell Jones. "You don't need it." The quiet confidence of the man who won the Indianapolis 500 and the Pikes Peak hill climb was so reassuring I lowered my voice—and asked for a helmet.

I happened to know that, for all his fame, Parnelli Jones never had driven in a sports car race. Perhaps Parnelli should have been nervous, too. His passenger never had ridden in a racing sports car.

RED BATHTUB

There is was at our feet, looking something like a red bathtub made for a small person who liked privacy.

Rufus Parnell Jones scrooched down into the cockpit and motioned for me to join him. One requirement of the racing sports car is that it have two seats, but that ends the specification. My seat must have had an honorable career as a scoop shovel before losing its handle.

We learned immediately there was room for only three legs under the hood, and I insisted politely that Parnelli keep both his inside in case they were needed for acceleration and braking. I got my right leg completely in. The left made the trip masquerading as a bent pin. I could peek around the knee and see through the four-inch-high windshield whenever I dared.

AWAY WE GO

Away we went. Racing being over for the day, things were rather informal at the track. Cars were crossing from the infield but a traffic officer gave us a gap and we romped into the first turn with our Coventry Climax power sounding like a stirred-up hornet's nest as Jones walked on the gas pedal.

It was then I discovered an oversight. Parnelli's upholstered seat was equipped with a safety belt. My scoop shovel wasn't. I felt airborne.

As we made the first huge loop my left hand sought something to grip and found only a too-hot pipe. I was scratching for fingernail purchase when we plunged down a hill and the world's nastiest double-hairpin curve loomed dead ahead.

We downshifted; Parnelli calmly, I desperately; and I felt rather proud that I got us around that big S without a steering wheel or stick shift of my own. In the process I located a hole in the dash-board just large enough for my right forefinger.

ENJOYING IT

Safely anchored now as we tooled over the backstretch hills, I was beginning to enjoy it when Parnelli touched my knee and pointed ahead. Puttering down the middle of the track was a man on a small motorbike. He cast a startled look over his shoulder and zigged. We zagged.

I let my breath out slowly but had to reclaim it with a gasp as we whipped around the final turn into the home stretch . . .

And went around again. This time the bends and lifts and drops were familiar but Jones boosted the RPM and slammed into the turns with the gears groaning and came out with the Lotus trying to run from under us.

As we pulled to a stop I asked Parnelli what our top speed had been and he shrugged: "Aw, it wasn't very fast." Honestly, it was at least . . .

DiMaggio's Uncle Dies

TAR CAGERS WILL OPEN PRACTICE

Five veterans and 15 freshmen are expected to be on hand when College of Marin basketball drills open at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in the college gym, head coach Cal Riemcke has announced.

Returnees from the 1962-63 squad include Pete Bardea and Rich Abbott, centers; Bob Nehls and Bill Hodgson, forwards, and Brad Bush who doubles at forward and guard.

The Tars will open their basketball season on Nov. 29 against Diablo Valley College at Diablo Valley.

T.L. Driver To Race Saturday

Art Cirimele of Terra Linda will be driving the Hudson-powered 'Special' Saturday night in the Bay Cities Racing Assn. sanctioned 100-lap main event at Vallejo Speedway.

There will be 24 cars competing for a win in the main event which carries a $1,500 purse. Art will be assisted by his brother Ray of San Francisco, and Dave Monroe, Bob Lombardi, Bob Sheean and Speed Dillon of San Rafael.

Time trials on the quarter-mile oval will start at 7:30 p.m., with the first race of the program starting at 8:30.

New Cage Date Set

The Marin Athletic League Class C basketball game between Terra Linda and Marin Catholic, postponed Tuesday because of lack of a referee, has been rescheduled for Nov. 14.

Palmer, Nicklaus Favored In Sahara Invitational

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, who between them have monopolized professional golf for the past couple of years, were installed as 3-1 co-favorites today to win the $70,000 Sahara Invitational.

The tournament got under way with 124 men teeing off on the Paradise Valley Country Club—deep in the desert outside Las Vegas and seven miles away from the big gambling casinos.

The powerful field includes just about every top-notch golfer from the United States—with the exception of National Open champion Julius Boros; plus most of the British Ryder Cup team.

The book-makers uptown don't think much of the invaders from Britain because they have installed them at 20-1 odds.

Tony Lema, who has been giving Nicklaus and Palmer a run for their money, is rated at 6-1; Bill Casper and Gene Littler at 8-1; and Paul Harney and Jerry Barber at 10-1.

The Paradise course measures 7,038 yards.

"You can get long drives here, but it is necessary that they be kept straight," said Art Wall, the former Masters champion, after a practice round. "It is going to take a long, straight man off the tee to win. The roughs are exceptionally tough to get out of."

Nicklaus and Palmer both rate in the "long" category, but they aren't always straight. George Bayer is real long, but he hasn't been able to keep on the fairways at all.

Don January, who is listed at 12-1 in the betting, is one of the straightest hitters and has been sharp in recent tourneys. He finished second in the Utah Open; 10th in the Seattle Open and fifth in the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open.

Tulsa End Leads Pass Receivers

The 6-foot-3, 193-pound senior end caught 13 passes against Cincinnati last Saturday to fatten his lead over Jimmy Evans of Texas Western and Dennis Kloke of Washington State.

Simmons now has caught 29 for 377 yards in three games, according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

Public Employees Top Crusade Drive

The public employees division today became the first unit in the 1963 Marin United Crusade campaign to go over the top.

With gifts and pledges totaling $6,411, the division is more than six per cent over its $6,000 quota, it was announced by County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, chairman.

The division is also the first in the five-county United Bay Area Crusade to exceed its goal, according to Marin campaign chairman Charles J. Francis.

County employees accounted for $5,775 of the public employees division total. Special districts contributed $481, with Mitchell citing Marin Municipal Water District and North Marin District for "outstanding performance."

Mitchell's department and 18 other county offices hit 100 per cent participation, as did two Marin cities, San Anselmo and Larkspur. Mill Valley is also close to 100 per cent.

Three other Marin divisions also lead in the United Bay Area Crusade, Francis announced. They are commerce and industry, with a total of $10,000 to date, or 33 per cent of quota; business, with $8,228, or 45 per cent, and construction, with $615, or a little more than 10 per cent.

Cal Poly Students Protest Suspension

SAN LUIS OBISPO (AP)—Approximately 1,500 students at Cal Poly marched in protest yesterday over suspension of two coeds for attending an off-campus barbeque in violation of a ban on visits to residences of the opposite sex.

CHERTSEY, England (AP) — Elaine Walter, 19, was fined $140 yesterday for stealing 85 items from the underwear shop she managed to make up her wedding trousseau.

Ike Will Attend Portrait Unveiling

ABILENE, Kan., (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower will be on hand when an oil portrait of the former president is unveiled at the Eisenhower Library Monday.

Eisenhower will fly to Abilene, his boyhood home, for the ceremony. He will return to his farm at Gettysburg that afternoon.

Tuxedo Is Stolen, But It's Size 50

LOS GATOS (UPI) — Gene Endslow told police he returned to his car yesterday and found that someone had stolen his tuxedo and dress shirt—and added that the thief probably won't be found wearing it.

Endslow is 6 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 265 pounds. The missing tuxedo was size 50.

3 Held To Answer In Marin Burglary

Lester Roy Finn, 28; Lemuel Leon Knowles, 47, and Robert Louis Hood, 29, all of Oakland, were held to answer in Marin County Superior Court on a charge of burglary after a preliminary hearing Tuesday in Marin Municipal Court.

The three were arrested last Wednesday morning after a newspaper deliveryman told police he had just witnessed the burglary of Cox TV and Radio Store, 603 Del Ganada Road, Terra Linda.

Fashionable Terms Include The Runner High Style, A Dog

The fashion industry has its own superstitions, its own terminology. Harvey Berin, a manufacturer, has clung for better than 25 years to one beige sleeveless button-front sweater as a good luck symbol. He wears it at the opening of every new collection. Now, it's so patched and rewoven it looks as if it may not make it another season.

In Seventh Avenue terms, a dog is the costume the buyer bought and it ended up on the sales rack of the store.

A RUNNER TO the manufacturer means many reorders on one style. High style is terminology for a fashion not mass-produced and supposed to be pace-setting. A Ford is a best-selling fashion in several price ranges.

Fords get into all price ranges by one of the most practiced arts in the industry — copying. The term for this — knocking off. A hit costume from a Pauline Trigere collection, for instance, may start out selling for $375 with the Trigere label and be knocked off so many times it's finally available at $29.95.

It is almost impossible in the United States for a designer to prevent piracy of his ideas, no matter to what extent he or she tries to insure secrecy at least until the opening show.

IN FRANCE, however, there are laws against piracy which help to protect the designer.

In New York, as in Paris, only the most trusted of employees are permitted to work on samples or see sketches. Sketches when not in use are locked. Many a garment half-finished hides under a muslin cover when it is not being worked on. Yet, the word gets around.

How? Hard to say. Manufacturers often accuse some buyers of circulating news of what's hot in a collection. Or, maybe an employee gossips. Or, maybe ideas of change are just in the wind blowing toward all the creative persons, who latch onto them simultaneously.

CERTAINLY MOST of them have latched onto one major trend for fall—the country or "sportive" look, characterized by boots or walking oxfords for city, cable knit stockings, snap brim hats, scarves tied under the chin, nubby tweed and mohair fabrics.

The "name" designers are showing the country casual, and it'll be copied through all price ranges.

JANEAN VANESSA EMBRY

Janean Embry Plans Rite In December

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Embry of Belvedere announce the engagement of their daughter, Janean Vanessa, to William Frederick Bonazelli of Hartford, Conn.

The parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Bonazelli of Hartford.

The bride-elect was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended the College of Marin and Stanford University Medical School. She is now employed as an X-ray technician at the Framingham Union Hospital in Boston, Mass.

She has one sister, Mrs. Miles A. Peterson of Belvedere and one brother, Curtis Embry of San Rafael.

William attended schools in Hartford and has his own painting and decorating contracting business in Hartford.

Jan, as she is known to friends, plans to resign from her position and come home the first of November to prepare for a December wedding at her parents' home.

The young couple will live in Stowe, Vt., where William is a ski instructor during the winter.

Marinites Will Attend Convention

Forty adult Scouts of the San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council will attend the National Council Meeting of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America in Miami Beach, Florida, Oct. 21-25. Among them will be Mrs. Victors Furst of Ross, area chairman for Marin County for the council, Mrs. Harold F. Green of Tiburon and Mrs. C. Russell Rees of Greenbrae. Mrs. Furst and Mrs. Green are former past presidents of the Marin County Girl Scout Council and Mrs. Rees is former president of the Berkeley Council.

Following the convention Mrs. Furst and Mrs. Green will spend the weekend in Nassau before returning home and Mrs. Rees will spend a week cruising the Caribbean and then visit Pennsylvania before returning to Marin.

HARVEST BALL SET ON NOV. 16

Mesdames Charles Joseph, Charles Johnson, William Sparrow, James Berthinier, Jerry Olrich and Dante Mazzoni met at the home of Mrs. Harry Clausing, reservations chairman, to address the 300 invitations.

The ball will be held at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant Nov. 16. Mrs. Sparrow is chairman.

Distinguished Spanish Artists Feted At Sausalito Luncheon

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mrs. Frank Townsend Greene of Sausalito entertained at a luncheon today at her home in honor of two distinguished Spanish artists, Emelio Osta, a pianist, and his sister, Teresita Osta, a dancer, who has done Spanish dances for the New York Symphony and has been featured on the TV Firestone Hour.

Other luncheon guests were Emelio Osta's wife, and Mesdames Victor Wollmann, George Chapman, Thomas Wiper, Justin Day, Jerrold Hooper, Chester Dennis, Earl Thompson and Charles Merrill.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE ANDERSON of Peacock Gap will entertain at a cocktail party preceding the annual harvest ball at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club Saturday night. Their guests will Dr. and Mrs. Frank Tavel and Messrs. and Mesdames Richard Morrison, Roy Claxton, Hal Weiss, Jon Adams, Nathan Pinkus, Fletcher Bonham, John Peronto, Mack Johnson, James Grady, Arthur Shallock, Milton Cerf, Michael Lescander and Jordan Dell'Era.

THE MARRIAGE of Mrs. Frederick Quee Tredway and Merriam Joseph Howells is being announced to their friends in Marin and other Bay Area counties. The wedding, attended mostly by family members, took place in the Methodist Church in Lafayette Sept. 27. Mr. and Mrs. Howells have returned from a wedding trip to Canada and are living at their home, 755 Moraga Road, Lafayette.

Mrs. Howells was Anne Brown before her marriage to the late Mr. Tredway, prominent journalist and advertising executive. They lived in Belvedere many years. The bridegroom, who was a widower, is the father of Mrs. Leroy Seltau of Walnut Creek, Mrs. June Howells Spalding of Geneva, Switzerland, and Alden Howells of Oakland who is associated with his father in Alden Howells and Company, investment bankers In Oakland.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Julius Howells built a mansion on the west side of Golden Gate Avenue in Belvedere before the turn of the century. All members of the Howells family were talented musicians and their home was one of the musical centers for Marin and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Howells were the parents of Merriam Howells, Christina (Mrs. Southall Pfund of San Francisco), Helena (Mrs. H. P. Buckingham) and Hamilton Howells, now Berkley residents.

The Belvedere mansion is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gomez, who restored the home to its original splendor and gave a formal dancing party in the ball room last Spring to celebrate. Marin residents are the daughters of Mrs. Pfund, Mrs. Roy Starbird of Sausalito, and Mrs. Ralph Dewey of Belvedere. Mrs. Pfund and Mrs. Dewey are flutists. Members of the Julius Howells family played various musical instruments and presented concerts ensemble. Julius was an engineer and the family traveled with him but always made the Belvedere mansion their headquarters.

Marin Women

Sigma Kappas Will Hear Miss Dunshee

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Robert Judd of Tiburon. Chapter president Mrs. Gail Carbiener will be co-hostess.

Plans will be discussed for the Founders Day Luncheon to be held on Nov. 2 in the Fairmount Hotel, San Francisco. The annual event is sponsored by the Bay Area Council of Sigma Kappa. Mrs. Robert E. Hosmer of Larkspur is Council president.

'Color Gardening' Topic For San Rafael Club Section

"Color Gardening in Containers" will highlight the luncheon meeting of the Home and Garden Section of the San Rafael Improvement Club on Tuesday at noon in the clubhouse.

Mrs. William Ferguson of Belvedere will outline techniques and ideas to achieve year-round color and drama in the garden, particularly emphasizing short-cut methods developed to allow a busy person full garden enjoyment with a minimum of time and effort.

"To garden and not just to be limited to Algerian ivy and daisies, but to bring excitement, discovery and beauty through form and color, is," said Mrs. Ferguson, "a wonderful outdoor sport."

THE FERGUSON garden has been featured in articles in Holiday, Better Homes and Gardens and in several Sunset Magazine publications, in addition to being shown on several local garden tours.

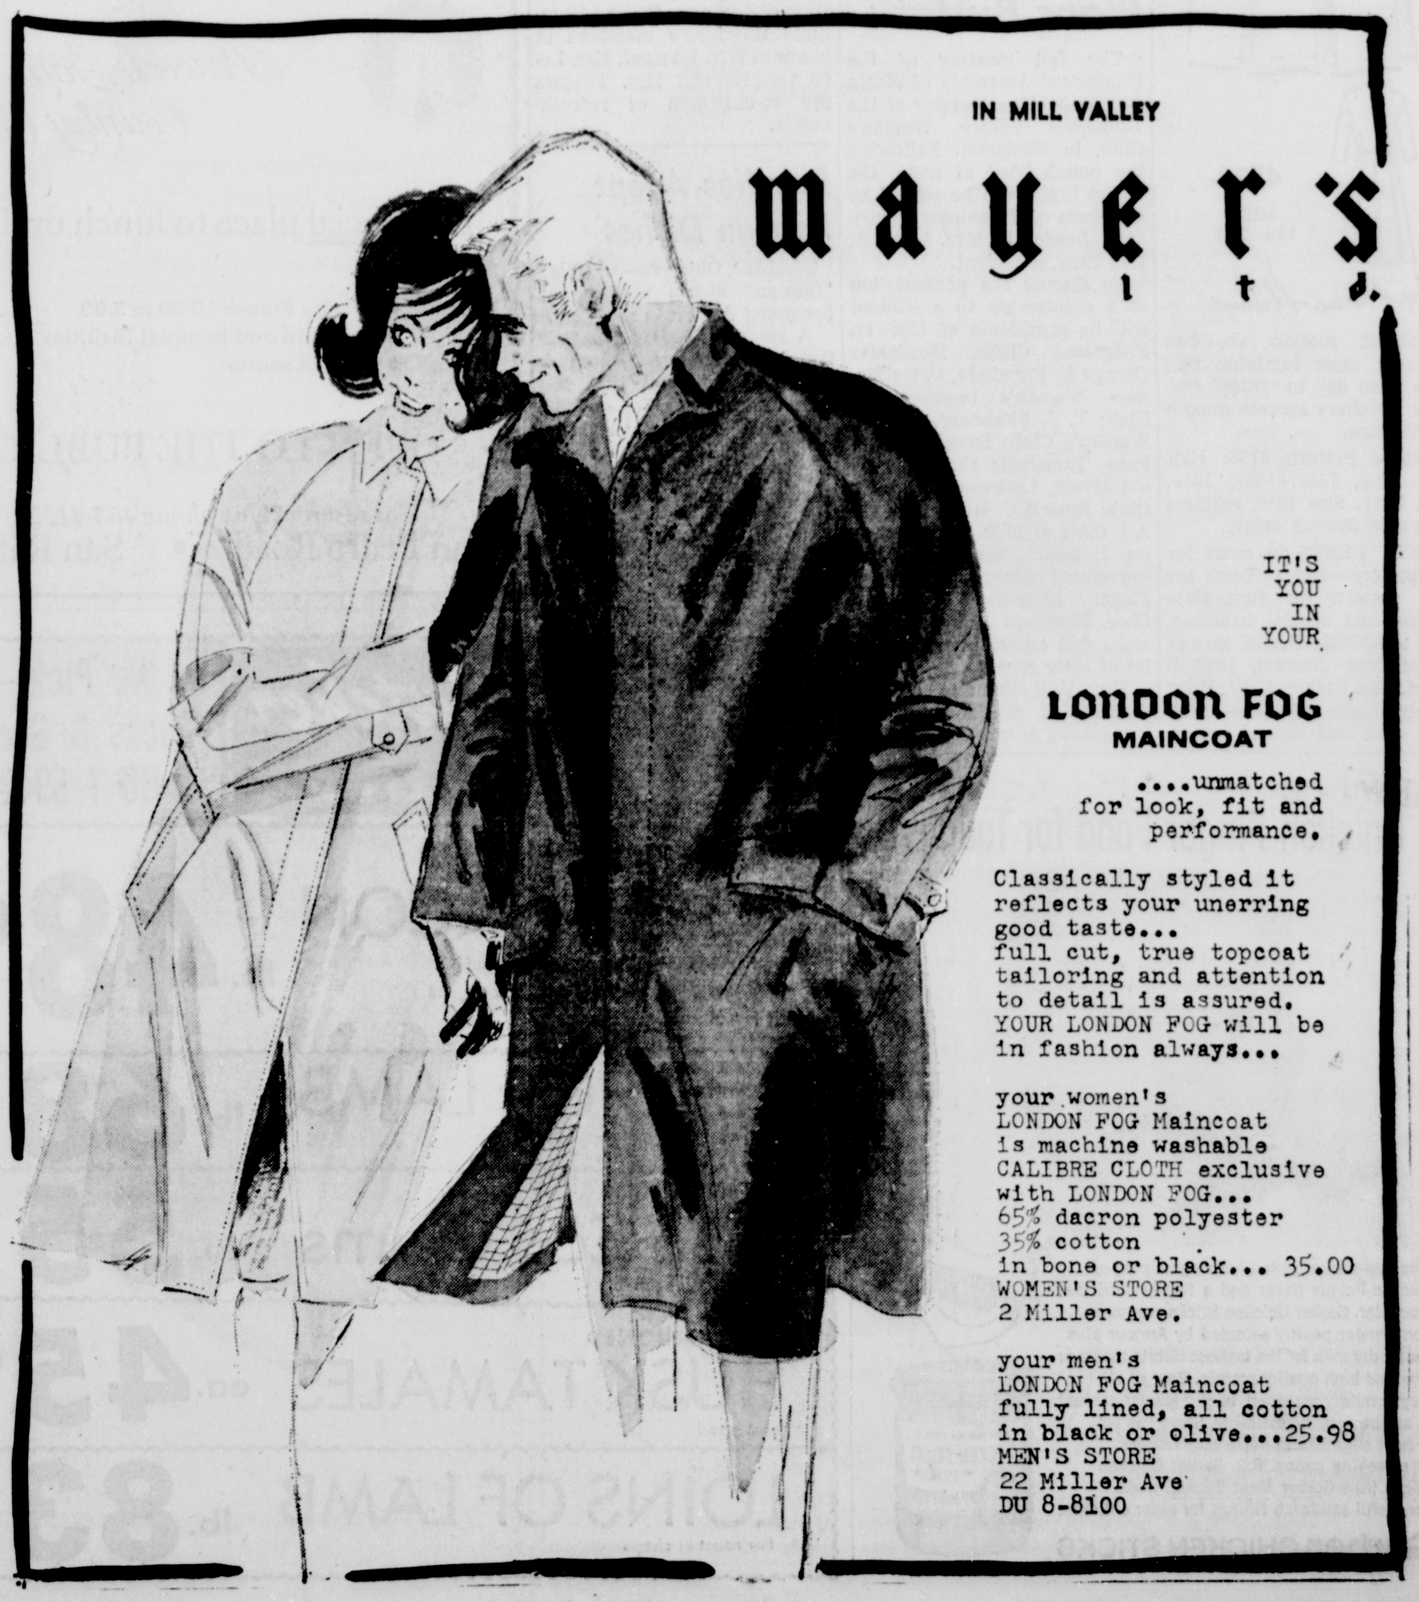

Mrs. Cletus J. Fitzharris and Mrs. Louis L. Walsh are co-chairmen of the club section, formerly known as "the American Home" section, but now enlarged to include in its scope gardening and flower arrangement.

MRS. WM. FERGUSON

Chairmen of the luncheon are Mrs. Thomas Shine and Mrs. J. J. Fischer. Assisting them are Mesdames George Duncan, Norris Rawles, Peter Cazassa, William P. Held, Charles Howell, Clarence DeLong, Ralph Holchester, G. B. Flood, Eldred B. Hillis, G. F. Van der Hoogt and Robert Logan.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. W. C. Cornwell of San Rafael.

WITH HARVEST THEME

Genevieve Threat Bride Of Van Alan Hatch, Lakewood

The First Methodist Church in San Rafael was the setting for the nuptials of Genevieve Ellen Threat and Van Alan Hatch of Lakewood. The Rev. Donald Baldwin performed the double ring ceremony, which was held Sept. 28.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Threat of San Rafael, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She donned a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace. Her sister, Betty Threat, was maid of honor, wearing a sapphire blue satin dress. Her other sister, Sue Threat, and Suzanne Irwin, both of San Rafael were the bridesmaids. They also wore blue satin dresses.

The bridegroom's brother, Tommy Hatch, served as best man, and Jay Hatch and the bride's brother, Jack Threat, were the ushers.

The couple is living in Paramount.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. She is the sister of Betty, Sue, Jack and Joe Threat Jr. of Napa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hatch of Lakewood are parents of the bridegroom.

Fashion Trends Now Calculated

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — One clothing manufacturer feeds a high-speed computer facts to get trends in fashion.

Feed the machine early orders from around the country, turn the data over for analysis by fashion and merchandising experts, and up come some predictions.

Corduroy outfits in pastel shades and bulk sweaters with a new U-neckline are scheduled for top popularity with the high school, college and young career female, say the machine and the analysts at Bobbie Brooks, Inc.

For dressup occasions, dresses with the high-waisted Empire look in crepe, velveteen and brushed wool are favorites. Blue and pink are expected to continue their dominance in the new season, to be joined by lilac which appears to be running a close third.

Those sweaters with the U-throat instead of the traditional V, come in fur blends, brushed mohair, jacquard and printed designs. In skirts, the projection sees a strong resurgence of slim skirts, with the A-flare continuing for both classroom and office attire.

El Marinero To Take Tour

El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Roth in San Francisco.

Luncheon hostesses will be Mesdames Boswell F. King, San Francisco, Andrew Komora, Corte Madera, Eugene Robinson, San Anselmo and Gustave K. Zantow of San Francisco.

After a business meeting presided over by Regent, Mrs. Bruno L. Ercolini of Fairfax, the members will be taken on a tour of Old Fort Point and the Presidio of San Francisco.

Marin Nurses Will Attend Conference

Marin nurses will attend a two-day information packed institute on Medico-Legal Aspects of Nursing Practice on Nov. 15 and 16 at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco, Mrs. Mary Clark, R.N., president of Marin Nurses Assn., district 28, CNA, announced.

Miss Mary Robinson, R.N., and Mrs. Phyllis Ford, R.N., are Marin nurses who will be panelists. Other local nurses planning to attend include Mesdames Illona Bellak, Ellen Bergman, Ruth McKillop, Margaret Nichols, Julie Quinn, Kathleen Fine, Mary Clark, Cecile Hahn, Barbara Curtin and Mary Anderson.

Full-Time?

Young wives seem to consider motherhood a full-time job. The U.S. Department of Labor reports only one out of five married women with children under the age of six has a job.

The 10,000 square foot building has a unique exterior finish of stucco textured with multi-colored pebbles and a six foot french mansard roof line. The basic frame is of structural steel. An interesting redwood solar screen is decorative and functional since it furnishes sun control. Large shrub-filled planters and trees front on the street to conceal customer parking. The interior of the air conditioned and sound proofed building is finished in handsome grass cloth, wood paneling and cork veneer. Thirty per cent of the main floor is devoted to the title plant and research.

Kennel Club Session Changes Planners' Plans

The San Rafael Planning Commission gathered for a study session at the city council chambers last Tuesday night and promptly had to change plans.

The Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club was holding its regular session in the chamber. Commissioners moved to the courthouse.

Acting City Planner David DuBiel said commissioners discussed policy and procedure for their meetings. This will be written down and presented at the next regular meeting of the commission at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

The commission also asked that parking requirements in commercial zones be spelled out and submitted for recommendation to the city council as an amendment to the zoning ordinance.

To Perform At Fall Music Fest

The 94-member Redwood High School Choir will perform for the first time this year in a fall music fest in the Redwood Little Theater at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Two choir sections of 47 members will perform separately in the program, directed by C. Arthur Wigell, high school vocal instructor. The groups will sing madrigals and Negro spirituals and folk songs.

Three student vocalists will appear as soloists; Barbara Solo of Corte Madera, who studied on a music scholarship at San Francisco State College last summer; Ann Hughes of Kentfield, and Rick Tuel of Larkspur.

Although many of the numbers will be sung without accompaniment, pianists Pam Prince of Larkspur and Sue Kackson of Tiburon will perform.

Admission to the concert is free.

Medical Miracle Required Knowledge By Public

National Newspaper Week
Guest Editorial
By DR. WARREN L. BOSTICK
Past President California Medical Assn.

Last year a major discovery in medical science occurred that was a classical example of a modern medical miracle, useless without public understanding and cooperation.

It was the oral poliomyelitis vaccine breakthrough.

It was ready, available, and capable of saving numerous lives, preventing untold suffering and stamping out a dreaded disease.

And yet medicine couldn't do it alone. It needed a catalyst, one that could bring together the ready doctor and the anxious public into united action.

Clearly the catalyst needed was communications.

This was not the place for the huckster, the flamboyant. The news media needed to be responsible, persistent and informative.

All types responded as loyal servants of the public. However, the printed word possessed a special status in such a situation. The newspapers had a particular responsibility with their capacity for presenting factual information in depth that permits analysis and contemplation.

They are known to be able to make the difference between a herd-like response on the part of people, or a coordinated turn-out of our individually knowledgable and motivated citizens.

Thus, a massive anti-polio immunization campaign was launched. The doctors had the wonder drops on sugar cubes, the press spread the good news and thus the people got the facts. The rest is history; the greatest voluntary turn-out of people in American history in the cause of disease prevention. A special award of merit was received by all those who participated.

However, must this end it? Isn't there another area wherein this great team can move? Doesn't private medicine have another project that it can spear head; another area where it can show that it wants and needs the public closer to it?

It has many good things to tell and nothing to hide.

The best way is through public education by involving the public in its affairs, and then using that catalytic common denominator of democracy, the Press.

Perfume Of Wet Eucalyptus

Eucalyptus trees are always fragrant, but particularly so after the first rains of autumn which seem to release their perfume.

Some people like the fragrance and some don't. It seems to be a matter of experience. Early in this century eucalyptus oil was used extensively in hospitals.

Many older people associate it with illness and operations. On the other hand, stories are told of Australians who felt a twinge of homesickness for their native land on entering a hospital and encountering the familiar perfume.

To Marinites eucalyptus perfume has pleasant associations with our great wonderland of Nature. We like it.

FUTURE CITY TRANSPORT

Commuting Trends To Depend On Mass Transit Decisions

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — Some of the nation's most powerful interest groups are engaged in an intensive pressure and propaganda battle over future transportation patterns in 20 to 40 major American cities.

The groups are seeking to influence crucial decisions on highway and rail investment that will affect commuting trends and the very shapes of the cities for decades to come.

Aligned on one side are various segments of the politically powerful automobile, petroleum and highway construction industries, often with the support of local bus and parking lot interests and city highway departments.

ON THE OTHER side are rail transit equipment makers, working sometimes in concert with city planners and citizens' groups.

Both groups are fighting for the lion's share of the estimated $10 billion or more which will be invested in mass transit systems across the nation over the next ten years. But the stakes are even higher that that.

FOR RAIL interests, each city that invests in rail transit means a substantial increase in business — perhaps at the expense of the auto makers. Only five U. S. cities —New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Cleveland — currently have rail transit, but industry sources estimate that 20 to 40 cities could afford it.

And for the average man on the street (or in the subway) forthcoming decisions on rail or road transit will likely dictate the method he uses to get to and from work, and how much it will cost him in time, money and frayed nerves.

HIGHWAY INTERESTS tend to push for rapid construction of key highway elements, thus committing a city to continue a high level of investment in highways, precluding investment in rail transit. One observer calculates that "millions" are being spent by the highway industry in a "sophisticated, indirect effort to establish a public attitude toward highways."

Rail transit backers, without the resources or influence of the highway group, see in local opposition to certain highway segments a chance to ensure that many people will have to commute by rail. It has assiduously publicized the supposed benefits of rail transit, and cultivated support from local citizens groups who believe that rails tunnelled underground are less disruptive to a city than freeways.

A DEADLINE set by Congress in 1962 is giving additional urgency to the fight. The 1962 Highway Act stipulated that no federal-aid highway funds would be given to urban areas of 50,000 population and over after June 1965 unless it was shown that the road projects fitted into a coordinated transportation system for the area.

This system, in turn, must be part of the area's long-range plans. This requirement will give local planning agencies a strong veto over local highway departments and creates an incentive for highway backers to press for commitment to key highway projects before the deadline falls.

Marin Needs State Open-Space Aid

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Unless we here in Marin keep after the California State Division of Beaches and Parks by all means possible, they are going to spend their funds when available in 16 other places in California rather than in Marin.

And all the beautiful open green-space that caused most of us to move to Marin in the first place will be destroyed in the favor of "progress" (?) — that is to say, row upon row of new housing tracts, telegraph poles, apartment houses and the like, not to mention freeways.

Say It Again, A Trifle Slower

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Dittli's exposition (I-J, 10 - 12 - 63) applying to digit dialing a sound theorem (Kline, Oesterle and Willson on succeeding performances of an act) pleases me.

Mr. Dittli found that all-numeric dialing has an advantage of 3.6 million combinations:

Digit equals 10x10x10x10x 10x10x10 or 10 million, vs. 8x8x10xx10x10x10x10 or 6.4 million.

He is not aware of Little's corollary to Kline, et al. "If an act can be performed in r ways . . . . . etc., the succesive acts can be performed in rst . . . . . (a continuing multiplication of all previous ways) except when certain acts are limited as to their value."

Since the digits one and zero are of special meaning to telephone equipment, that is, (a) as a first digit they mean toll call and Operator, respectively; and, (b) as a second digit they signify an area code (or other codes) being dialed; we may apply Little's corollary and find:

Unwanted Kittens And Puppies

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Thanks for the letter by Mr. and Mrs. Layman of Corte Madera regarding kittens.

If only owners of females, both dogs and cats, could only comprehend the cruelty and suffering that is the fate of so many kittens and puppies.

Daily we see "ads" reading: "Free — kittens, females." When these female kittens get to be eight or nine months of age, they in turn will start breeding litters and this goes on and on.

As Mrs. Layman says, if only people would get their females spayed, they would be spared trying to dispose of the kittens and puppies, handing them out to anyone who will take them off their hands.

The breeding of thousands upon thousands of animals that are foredoomed to slaughter or prolonged suffering is not humane. The responsibility for this cruelty rests upon anyone who allows breeding of animals that he or she cannot keep and humanely maintain.

The nation's humane societies and pounds are literally drowned in the flood of these unwanted kittens and puppies. Taxpayers and private philanthrophy are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars each year on rescue and control work, but are unable to offer even the dreary help of euthanasia to more than a small fraction of the homeless animals.

So long as there are more dogs and cats than we can provide homes for, any litter of puppies and kittens is surplus. The responsibility for this situation which causes so much cruelty and suffering, rests upon anyone permitting their females to have litter after litter of animals that will eventually be homeless.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Novelist P. G. Wodehouse once owned a bulldog named Sammy who loved everybody so much that he happily followed anybody who beckoned him. The first time he didn't come back to Wodehouse's Long Island home, the man who found him was given a ten-dollar reward by the grateful Mr. W. The news stirred the business instincts of local teen-agers. They would come to the Wodehouse gate, call "Here, Sammy!" and after them old Sam would waddle. An hour later they would bring him back—and cash in. Eventually, however, the bottom dropped out of this lucrative market. When the reward dropped to a measly quarter, old Sam was left to his own devices.

Official Hurdles Almost Balk California Youth Corps Plan

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Bureaucracy, red tape, and conflict in laws almost resulted in writing finis on the youth conservation corps program passed by the last legislature at the request of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. This happened before the program got under way.

The state hopes to meet its deadline of Nov. 1, in starting its pilot program under the $300,000 set aside by the legislature for a period of two years.

But officials admit they have encountered a lot of headaches in attempts to comply with the laws, rules and regulations which beset employers throughout California.

THE PLAN was to take 100 young men between the ages of 16 and 22, who are not in schools, and are not employed, and have no good prospects for employment, and give them a chance to participate in the program for six months with the privilege of signing up for another six months.

The work will be rugged, there will be plenty of discipline, and the young men were to receive $60 per month, plus room, board, clothing, medical care and work equipment. The idea was to provide some employment for young people who have no other prospects for employment.

But immediately, state officials started running into trouble.

THE SIX MONTH renewal period was the first hurdle, because the state of California can't employ anyone for more than six months unless they are under civil service. This was worked out through the medium of signing contracts, which make the youths independent contractors instead of employees. Even so, the department of employment may have to make a ruling on this procedure.

Then the Internal Revenue laws reared their ugly faces and the IRS determined that in addition to the $60 per month in pay, the members of the corps would be receiving the equivalent of $120 per month in found, which is the room, board and clothing.

Thus the state would be required to withhold all but about $10 per month for income tax purposes. The corps members would be single, and probably have no dependent exemptions, so they would be hit for the full withhold on their salary plus found.

HOWEVER, the independent contractor clause may take care of the situation. If the members stay in for six months, they will receive $360 in cash which wouldn't be taxable under the federal law. But if they stay in for a year, and receive $720, they will be hit for some income tax.

Thus when the government attempts to engage in a program providing work for some of its young people, it immediately runs into a situation where it is "hoist by its own petard."

ONE REASON, of course, that young people cannot find work is the fact that a multitude of restrictions are placed on the private employer, who is not only virtually prohibited from hiring minors by reason of these restrictions but is also held in by labor union demands and regulations.

An attempt was made during last harvest season to open the agricultural doors to a certain extent to the young people of the state, and according to reports, progress was made.

But the fact still remains that private employers would rather skip hiring young people because of government red tape.

DON'T CHLOROFORM THEM!

Ex-Presidents Are Given A Chance To Speak Freely

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ex-President Herbert Hoover is supposed to have told ex-President Harry S. Truman one time:

Hoover was joking, of course; both he and Truman —and also Dwight D. Eisenhower — the other living ex-President—have managed to keep busy at useful occupations.

BUT THEY could have a bigger voice than they do in the nation's affairs. The Senate has just taken a step toward giving them just that.

The Senate passed a resolution giving all ex-Presidents the privilege of addressing it whenever they wished. All they would have to do would be to give advance notice.

Similar legislation has been proposed in Congress many times, but the idea always has foundered on the rocks of indifference.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT put an effective quietus on a comparable proposal in 1912 when he said he could see no point in ex-Presidents being made non-voting members of the Senate.

Chloroform, Taft said, could provide a more merciful oblivion.

But circumstances and viewpoints change and this time, thanks to the persistence of Sen. Claiborne Pell (D-R. I.), it got through, although it didn't go as far as Pell had sought. Pell originally wanted to give all ex-Presidents the status of senators-at-large.

THERE IS NO expense involved in the proposal the Senate approved. Former Presidents already are entitled to pensions of $25,000 a year plus up to $50,000 a year for staff expenses.

Truman and President Kennedy already have the right to the Senate floor, being former members of the body.

But, Pell said, if Hoover and Eisenhower were to come in, too, "the luster of our body would be even further enhanced."

PELL GAVE this argument to the Senate:

"We could benefit by the unique wisdom of our retired chief executives.

"This, I believe, is a much-needed step today, when the legislative and executive branches of our government too often think of themselves as antagonists rather than allies.

"I know how much I would appreciate the advice and reactions of former Presidents when it comes to some of these rather difficult problems on which we have to vote, particularly those problems where our own Senate committee recommendations run counter to those of our chief executive."

Pell didn't have to add that most men — especially old men — like to give advice. That's a truism daily demonstrated in the Senate.

10 YEARS AGO

Ark residents along Greenbrae's Corte Madera Creek said they want modern sanitation facilities but somehow must have them cheaper.

Benny Ratto of Mill Valley's garbage removers said efforts to poison rats at the city dump were handicapped by need to keep a man on duty 24 hours a day to scare off state-protected seagulls.

20 YEARS AGO

San Rafael city schools underwent class redistribution to avoid overcrowding, with changes at the Coleman, West End and Laura Dell schools. Attendance was at about 1,500 pupils.

Marin County schools were proudly displaying the new California state flag in accordance with recent legislation.

Tribute Paid Tamalpais High For Handling Racial Issue

SOME PEOPLE have told me Tamalpais High School is Marin's best.

It was spotlighted at last week's meeting of Tamalpais Union High School District board.

In the time when citizens speak on items not agenda'd, Wyman Hix of Sausalito, a member of the Congress of Racial Equality, said:

"As a father of a Tam student I should like to congratulate the Tam staff on the statesmanlike handling of the recent racial outbreak. This was a tense period and the staff did a masterful job."

Chairman John C. Siemens thanked him, added a related item was coming up.

THE BOARD VOTED to strengthen a policy adopted in 1960 guaranteeing equality to all students.

Then 12 citizens disclosed they wished to praise Principal Robert H. Prather and staff for their immediate, decisive and diverse actions in handling the clashes.

Prather and others had quickly set up "talk-out" meetings of pupils, P-TA leaders and others to increase understanding to avert new rumbles.

TWO OF the 12 citizens addressed trustees as follows:

Dr. Ellen Binckley of Mill Valley, "The way the situation was handled was a model for the nation."

Maxwell Hull, chairman of the steering committee, Marin Committee For Fair Play, "I congratulate the school staff and thank the superintendent for his leadership."

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle then read letters of like sentiment. Two were from parents, Nona O. Kaufmann (wife of Stephen H. Kaufmann) of Strawberry and Susan W. Crawford (Mrs. E. E. Crawford) of Mill Valley.

A THIRD, which I am told is unusual if not unprecedented, came from Tam High Counselor Cyril Beattie and concluded: "We look forward to the improved harmony necessary to continue educating the young people of our communities."

While the board was meeting, a voluntary committee of Tam teachers began an evening study hall program for Marin City pupils, the instructors donating their time.

NO. 1 TRUMPETEER Dizzy Gillespie said on the radio program of Roy Trumbull of Corte Madera that his first firm appointment as president will be Governor Wallace of Alabama as U.S. Information Officer in the Congo, Roy reports in "Trumbull's Rumble" in the Tower Times, College of Marin student paper.

I caught two shows by Gillespie and his gusty quintet at Off Broadway in The City last week. I can attest he would liven up the White House, which would be renamed. Besides blowing up a storm of jazz he and pianist Kenny Baron, bassist Christopher White, drummer Rudy Collins and altoist James Moody produce brilliant non-Jim Crow humor.

A WRY EPILOGUE to the action by Supervisors William Fusselman, George Ludy and William Gnoss in passing a costly, controversial retirement plan over the "no" votes of Supervisors Peter Behr and Byron Leydecker:

A new California law which went into effect recently says that a law officer can order removed any vehicle left unattended on a freeway for more than four hours. Earlier the law applied only to vehicles left on freeways within a city limit.

The Lady Cops Of England Get About In Sports Cars

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In view of all that has been happening in England recently, it was reassuring to chat with three policewomen from that country.

The lady cops, who were here in a goodwill visit, were the very essence of stability and respectability.

I could tell that if they caught someone like Christine Keeler swimming in the nude they would arrest her immediately. As who wouldn't?

IN FACT, Miss Jean Stewart, who is a police superintendent on the Lancashire County Force, brushed aside my query about the sex problem in England.

She made it plain that the average Englishman still preferred cricket, so we talked about police business instead.

The superintendent and the other two policewomen, Winifred Cross and Sheila Crigall, were driving an MG sports car, which is the same type of vehicle they use for patrol work back home.

MISS STEWART said lady cops in police-equipped sports cars were quite common in England. The Lancashire County Force, which is the second largest in England has been using policewomen on general duty since 1914 and now has 122 in its ranks.

Miss Stewart said lady cops work out quite well because England has less crime than the United States and even the male police usually go about unarmed.

"We don't work through strength," she said. "We work through tact."

I TOLD Miss Stewart that if the police in Washington left off their guns every bank in the city would be emptied by nightfall. Miss Stewart said things were different in England.

"If we carried guns, it might encourage others to start carrying them," she said.

I asked Miss Stewart how they could apprehend a lawbreaker without being armed and she said they used persuasion.

"Courage isn't physical in the British police," she said. It's mostly patience."

Because there are relatively fewer crimes, police in England have more time to serve the public in other ways, she explained.

"WE GET a lot of calls from women who imagine that someone's putting bricks through their letter boxes," she said.

One of the other lady cops commented that police in England also are kept busy investigating complaints from people who claim they have seen "strange lights."

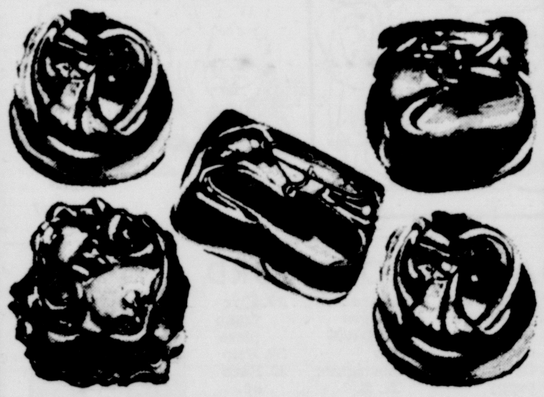

I left the interview more convinced than ever that "there'll always be an England."

CALIFORNIA State Employees' Assn., filing suit to halt farming-out of architectural work on state colleges to private firms: "CSEA opposed this part of the legislation as an attempt to circumvent civil service, and as an approach susceptible to pork barrel abuses and higher costs to the taxpayers."

Deluxe FROST-FREE Refrigerator-Freezer!
You'll agree, the biggest problem with a refrigerator is the dreadful job of defrosting it. Drippy mess and sore thumbs later, there you are . . . watching frost develop again . . . how exasperating! If that's the case, you'll love this 2-door Westinghouse refrigerator-freezer . . . it's frost-free in both sections! Freezer holds 119 lbs. of food (food you don't have to chisel to get out!). Big refrigerator section has a convenient sliding shelf, twin porcelain crispers, butter compartment, egg rack and a magnificently designed storage door. And now to make this refrigerator completely irresistible . . . Westinghouse has allowed us to slash the price, making this one of our biggest bargains ever!

Most Popular Single-Door Model!
Apartment house dwellers! Newlyweds! Budget-minded people! If you're looking for a great buy in a great refrigerator, you've found it! Here's the most popular Westinghouse single-door refrigerator available . . . and for an unbelieveably low price! Economical 77 lb. freezer means you can stock up on groceries . . . cuts down on shopping time! Convenient door storage keeps often-used foods just a fingertip away . . . Separate egg and butter holders, too! Vegetables stay crispy fresh in full-width porcelain crisper! Many more features for you to see . . . let Lachman Bros. show you, now!
189.95 WITH TRADE Nothing Down, $9 a month

Save water, save detergent, save money! Westinghouse for more washing power! Gets your clothes cleaner with 2 wash cycles (for regular and fine fabrics) and 2 deep rinses. Handy weighing door for a big 12 lb. family-size load! Automatic lint ejector . . . no messy lint traps to clean, the Laundromat does it automatically! Suds-n-Water Saver . . . the laundromat uses less water and only HALF the detergent of a washer with a center post agitator. Only Westinghouse gives you the thorough commercial cleaning with the clothes tumbled in water!

Respond To Double Even When Your Hand Is Weak

When your partner doubles for a takeout, you are supposed to bid your best suit—such as it is.

The weaker your hand the more essential the takeout. Even if you go down, the damage (including damage to partnership morale) is less than if you pass the double.

Opening lead — ♡ K

In this case South has a pretty ghastly hand but he properly responds to North's repeated takeout double.

BETTER CLUBS

Actually, South has better clubs than spades but wisely prefers a response of two spades to a response of three clubs.

Even if South goes down at two spades he is glad he responded. West would have made two hearts doubled, scoring game and rubber, if South had passed.

South is even happier if he succeeds in making his contract of two spades.

RUNS CLUBS

It seems at first glance that he must lose three trumps, one heart, and two diamonds, but South can save one of these tricks if he is quick and nimble.

That is, declarer cashes the ace and king of clubs and then overtakes dummy's jack with his own queen. When the clubs break evenly, fortunately for South, declarer leads his last club and discards dummy's low heart.

CANNOT GAIN

West cannot gain by ruffing the last club, so he discards a heart. East ruffs with a small trump, but this eventually costs him a trump trick.

The four remaining trumps come down on two leads, so that South loses only two trump tricks in addition to the club ruff and two diamonds.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, Oct. 17, the 290th day of 1963 with 75 to follow.

The moon is new. The morning star is Jupiter. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1777, British Gen. John Burgoyne surrendered his forces to the Americans at Saratoga, N. Y., in one of the great turning points of the American Revolution.

In 1933, Dr. Albert Einstein, a refugee from Nazi Germany, arrived in the United States and established residence in Princeton, N. J.

In 1945, Juan Peron staged a surprise coup and overthrew the government of Argentina, thus becoming the country's dictator.

A thought for the day—Albert Einstein said: "As long as there are sovereign nations possessing great power, war is inevitable."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

GRAND OPENING of our NEW
USED CAR LOT

In a few short months we have become the Bay Area's LEADING Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer . . . . and this TREMENDOUS sales volume means we have DOZENS of SHARP USED CARS for your selection at a reasonable price! Come in today and Saturday (or any day except Sunday) — We'll be here until 9 p.m. to SERVE YOU.

UP TO $499

'58 PONT.	4-door with all the most prized extras included in asking price. It's a family car for a very choosy family.	$ 399
'57 PLYM.	4-door in a handsome blue . . . . automatic, radio, heater. Your rough and tough gad-about bargain.	$ 499

$500 TO $999

'58 PLYM.	2-door hardtop. Suitable extras, and dollar for dollar here's an outstanding car value. See it tonight or tomorrow.	$ 599
'57 CHEV.	Station Wagon with straight stick, radio, heater. Our boys have a crush on this smoothie.	$ 699
'57 CHRY.	New Yorker 4-door. The chap who equipped this one really liked driving comfort.	$ 799

$1000 TO $1499

'60 CORVAIR	Fire engine red, automatic driving for comfort. The smart thing is to test drive it at once, as it's too good to pass up.	$1099
'59 DODGE	4-door with low miles. The owner must have bought some accessory every payday.	$1099
'61 FALCON	Straight stick for extra power and dollar saving. Perfect back-to-school travel for Junior, Sis or to get Mom to store.	$1199
'60 VALIANT	9-passenger Station Wagon, automatic, radio performs like a hi-fi console, and heater will give comfort all the way to the rear.	$1199
'58 IMPERIAL	Every driving-ease gadget available already installed on this beauty. It's ready to travel . . . get here fast.	$1299
'59 CHRY.	Emerald green 4-door with so much power it'll move anywhere, any time. Fancy interior, too.	$1299

$1500 AND UP

'62 CHEV.	Impala convertible, 4-speed trans., bucket seats, new top. Immaculate interior completes the "lush look." Only $269 down.	$ 269
'62 CHEV.	Monza Club Coupe, 4-speed trans., low miles. Why not go first class? Here's that ticket. Only $399 down.	$ 399
'59 HEALEY	One of Austin's best. Red with black top and wire wheels. Mint shape, man . . . like ready for the scene.	$1699
'62 HEALEY	Austin made another one here, with 4 seats for snug comfort. No races, no rallies . . . pure comfortable driving. A mighty package. Only $299 Down.	$ 299
'59 T-BIRD	White like a great snow swan and just as graceful. Even Ebenezer Scrooge would buy this one.	$1799
'60 CHEV.	Impala Coupe in the popular pale blue. This motor will pass the stiffest test you can give it.	$1899
'61 PONT.	Convertible—a gorgeous, snappy maroon with a nifty white top. Loaded, man, with everything but the girls. $399 down.	$ 399
'60 CHRY.	2-door Hardtop. 8 anxious cylinders, power packed and dependable. A mighty motor with plenty of mustard.	$1999
'63 CHRY.	New Yorker (not an "old yorker") with 9,369 miles and power everything. Alert yet purrs like a kitten.	$3899
'63 IMPERIAL	The sweetest car you will ever push-button and with air cond. Accessory list reads like auto supply store inventory.	$4499

ORDINANCE NO. 63-1
AN ORDINANCE CALLING A SPECIAL ELECTION IN BOLINAS BEACH PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE ELECTORS OF SAID DISTRICT A MEASURE AS TO WHETHER A BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF SAID DISTRICT SHALL BE INCURRED FOR THE ACQUISITION, CONSTRUCTION AND COMPLETION OF WATER SYSTEM IMPROVEMENT; DECLARING THE ESTIMATED COST OF SAID IMPROVEMENT, THE METHOD AND MANNER OF PAYMENT THEREFOR, THE AMOUNT OF THE PRINCIPAL OF SAID BONDED INDEBTEDNESS TO BE INCURRED THEREFOR AND THE MAXIMUM RATE OF INTEREST TO BE PAID THEREON; PRESCRIBING DENOMINATION OF BONDS AND FORM OF BONDS AND COUPONS; MAKING PROVISION FOR THE LEVY AND COLLECTION OF TAXES; FIXING THE DATE OF ELECTION, THE MANNER OF HOLDING THE SAME, ESTAELISHING AN ELECTION PRECINCT AND POLLING PLACE FOR SAID ELECTION, APPOINTING A BOARD OF ELECTION THEREFOR AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE THEREOF.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of BOLINAS BEACH PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT, on the 4th day of October, 1963, duly passed and adopted a resolution determining that the public interest and necessity of said District demand the acquisition, construction and completion of the following public utility, to wit: Improvement to the water system of the District, including a storage tank, pipe line, and other works, property and structures necessary or convenient for the improvement of the water system of the District; and thereafter duly caused plans and estimates of cost of said improvement to the water system to be procured; and determined that there are no existing utilities, or utility works of the same character in said District so said Board of Directors could not negotiate for offers for the sale to said District of an existing public utility or utility works, and determined that the cost of said improvement to the water system proposed to be acquired, constructed and completed so far exceeds the revenues of said District to be derived from the operation of any public utility as to render it necessary to incur a bonded indebtedness therefor; and duly formulated for submission to the electors of said District a measure for the incurring of a District bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction and completion of said improvement to the water system, now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF BOLINAS BEACH PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT:

Section 1. A special district election shall be and it is hereby ordered and will be held in Bolinas Beach Public Utility District on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1963, at which election shall be submitted to all persons possessing all the requirements of electors under the general election laws of the State of California and who are duly qualified electors residing within said District, the question of incurring a bonded indebtedness of said District for the object and purposes set forth in the following measure, to wit:

MEASURE: (Water System Improvement) Shall the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District incur a bonded indebtedness in the principal amount of $75,000 bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter, for the acquisition, construction and completion of the following public utility, to wit: Improvement to the water system of the District, including the acquisition and construction of a storage tank and pipe line, and other works, property and structures necessary or convenient for an addition and improvement to the water system of the District?

Section 2. The estimated cost of the acquisition, construction and completion by said District of said public utility is $75,000. Said estimated cost includes all costs and estimated costs incidental to or connected with said acquisition, construction, improvement, and financing, and all engineering, inspection, legal and fiscal agent's fees, costs of the bond election and of the issuance of said bonds, bond reserve funds and working capital and bond interest estimated to accrue during the construction period and for a period of not to exceed 12 months after completion of construction.

Section 3. The proposed method and manner of payment for the acquisition, construction and completion of said public utility by said District is by the use and application of the proceeds of sale of said bonds of said District to be issued, to the extent of $75,000, if said bonds in the amount set forth in said Measure are duly authorized by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the electors voting at said election upon said Measure for the issuance of said bonds as set forth in Section 1 hereof.

Section. 4. The sum of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars $(75,000) is the amount of bonded indebtedness necessary for the acquisition, construction and completion of said improvement to the water system named in said Measure set forth in Section 1 hereof, and the rate of interest to be paid on said bonds shall not exceed six (6) per cent per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter. Said bonds shall be known as "Bolinas Beach Public Utility District 1963 Water System Bonds" and shall be sold in accordance with law by said Board of Directors at such time and in such manner as they shall determine, but shall not be sold at less than par and accrued interest. Said Bonds shall be negotiable in form and of the character known as serial, and shall be 75 in number, numbered consecutively from 1 to 75, both inclusive, of the denomination of $1,000 each. All of said bonds shall bear interest from their date until paid at the rate or rates designated by said Board of Directors at the time of the sale of said bonds, but not to exceed six (6) per cent per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter. Such interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to each bond and each of said coupons shall represent six months' interest on the bond to which it is attached, except that the first coupon shall represent one year's interest. Both the principal of and interest on said bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the County Treasurer of Marin County, the Treasurer of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District, at San Rafael, Marin County, California. Said bonds shall bear such date as may be fixed by said Board of Directors and shall mature and be payable in consecutive numerical order, from lower to higher, as follows, to wit:

$5,000 principal amount in each of the years from two to sixteen, both inclusive, after their date;

Section 5. Said bonds shall be substantially in the following form, the blanks in said form and in the form of coupon set forth below to be filled with appropriate words or figures, namely:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
Marin County
BOLINAS BEACH PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT
1963 WATER SYSTEM BOND
No. ——— $1,000

The BOLINAS BEACH PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT, a public utility district duly organized and existing under the Constitution and laws of the State of California, hereby acknowledges itself indebted and for value received promises to pay to the bearer (or if this bond be registered, to the registered holder hereof) on the —— day of ———, 19——;
ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS
together with interest thereon at the rate of —— (——) per cent per annum, until payment of said principal sum in full, payable semi-annually on the —— day of ———, and the —— day of ——— of each year (except interest for the first year which is payable in one installment at the end of said year). Unless this bond is registered, such interest prior to maturity shall be payable only on presentation and surrender of the proper interest coupons hereto attached as they respectively become due. Both the principal of and the interest on this bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the County Treasurer of Marin County, the Treasurer of said Public Utility District, at San Rafael, Marin County, California.

This bond is one of a duly authorized issue of bonds of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District aggregating Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000) in principal amount, all of like tenor and date (except for such variations, if any, as may be required to designate varying numbers and maturities) and is issued under and pursuant to the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, and under and pursuant to the ordinances and proceedings of said District duly adopted and taken and a vote and assent of more than two-thirds of all the qualified electors residing in said District voting at a special district election duly called and held for that purpose.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by law to exist, happen and to be performed precedent to and in the issuance of this bond have existed, happened and been performed in due time, form and manner as required by law, and that the amount of this bond, together with all other indebtedness of said District does not exceed any limit prescribed by the Constitution or statutes of said State, and that provision has been made, as required by the Constitution and statutes of said State, for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on this bond as the same become due. The full faith and credit of said District are hereby pledged for the punctual payment of the principal and interest of this bond.

This bond may be registered in the manner provided by law, and thereafter the principal hereof and interest hereon shall be payable only to such registered owner.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Board of Directors of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District has caused this bond to be signed by the President of the Board of Directors of the District and countersigned by the Clerk, and has caused the seal of said District to be attached hereto and the interest coupons attached hereto to be signed by the facsimile signature of its Treasurer and this bond to be dated the —— day of ———, 19——.

President of the Board of Directors of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District

Clerk of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District

Coupon No. ———
On the —— day of ———, 19——, Bolinas Beach Public Utility District will (unless the within mentioned bond be registered) pay to the bearer at the office of the County Treasurer of Marin County, the Treasurer of said District, at San Rafael, Marin County, California, ——— Dollars, $———
in lawful money of the United States of America, being ——— months' interest then due on its Bolinas Beach Public Utility District 1963 Water System Bond, No. ——— dated ———, 19——.

County Treasurer of Marin County and Treasurer of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District

Section 6. The Board of Directors (unless funds are otherwise provided from revenues) shall annually levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and also to pay such part of the principal as will fall due within the succeeding year.

Section 7. Said special election shall be held and conducted and the votes thereof canvassed and the returns thereof made and the results thereof ascertained and determined as herein provided; and in all particulars not prescribed by this ordinance, said election shall be held according to the provisions of law governing elections in the District.

Section 8. The polls at the polling place hereinafter designated shall be opened at 7:00 o'clock A.M. (P.S.T.) of said day of election and shall be kept open continuously thereafter until 7:00 o'clock P.M. (P.S.T.) of said day of election, when the polls shall be closed (except as provided in Section 14436 of the Elections Code), and the election officers shall thereupon proceed to canvass the ballots cast thereat.

Section 9. For the conduct of said special district election, Bolinas Beach Public Utility District shall constitute one special election precinct comprising all of the territory in said District. The polling place therefor and the election officers appointed to conduct said election thereat are as follows:

Polling Place:
The Mesa Clubhouse, Elm Road at Maple Road, Bolinas, California.
Election Officers:
Inspector: Mrs. Homer Ingerman.
Judge: Mrs. Betty Ingerman.
Clerk: Mrs. Rose Vieira.
Clerk: Mrs. Lillian Sterling.

MEASURE: (Water System Improvement) Shall the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District incur a bonded indebtedness in the principal amount of $75,000 bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter, for the acquisition, construction and completion of the following public utility, to wit: Improvement to the water system of the District, including the acquisition and construction of a storage tank and pipe line, and other works, property and structures necessary or convenient for an addition and improvement to the water system of the District?	YES
	NO

Section 11. —Each voter to vote for said Measure hereby submitted and for incurring said bonded indebtedness set forth in said Measure shall stamp a cross (X) in the blank space opposite the word "YES" on the ballot to the right of said Measure and to vote against said Measure and against incurring said indebtedness, shall stamp a cross in the blank space opposite the word "NO" on the ballot to the right of said Measure.

Section 12. The returns of said election hereby called shall be directed to the Clerk of said District and shall be immediately delivered by the Inspector or by some other safe and responsible carrier designated by said Inspector to said Clerk, and the ballots shall be kept unopened for at least six months. This Board of Directors shall meet at its usual place of meeting on November 12, 1963, being the first business day after the first Monday after said election (the first Monday, November 11, 1963, being a legal holiday), at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. (P.S.T.) to canvass the returns and declare the results of said election hereby called.

Section 13. The Secretary of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District is hereby directed, upon the passage and adoption of this ordinance, to publish the same once a week for two successive weeks in THE INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in Marin County and of general circulation in said District (there being no newspaper printed, published and circulated in said District). Said Secretary is further directed to post copies of said ordinance at three public places in said District at least one week before the expiration of thirty days after the passage of this ordinance. No other notice of the election hereby called need be given.

Section 14. This ordinance shall take effect as an ordinance thirty days after its passage, but prior thereto shall constitute notice of said special election hereby called.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 4th day of October, 1963 at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District by the following vote:

NOES: None.

BOLINAS AVENUE
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 1:30 p.m., Oct. 22, 1963, for:

Installation of 60 inch-reinforced concrete pipe together with headwalls, rock rip-rap protection, and miscellaneous work involved in construction of improvements, complete in place on Bolinas Avenue, 300 feet south of Creek Road, City of Fairfax.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, P. O. Box 4186, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specification or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Treasurer, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 1:30 P.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NOVATO
RESOLUTION NO. 148-63

RESOLUTION GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED ANNEXATION TO CITY OF NOVATO OF UNINHABITED TERRITORY DESCRIBED HEREIN AND DESIGNATED "SUTRO AVENUE NO. 2" AND GIVING NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OF PROTESTS THERETO

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NOVATO:

1. That it has come to the attention of the City Council of the City of Novato, and this Council finds, that it would be for the best interests of said City and of the residents of the contiguous area herein described to alter the boundaries of said City by annexing thereto and incorporating therein as a part thereof under the provisions of the annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939, as amended, certain property situated in the County of Marin, State of California, hereby designated "Sutro Avenue No. 2", and described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

2. That the proposal for annexation and the description of said territory was submitted to the Marin County Boundary Commission, and the attached description is in accordance with the report of said Commission.

3. That Tuesday, November 26th, 1963, at the hour of 8:00 P.M., in the Council Chambers, Novato Community House, in the City of Novato, County of Marin, California, is hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any person owning real property within the uninhabited territory above described and proposed to be annexed to the City of Novato, and having any objections to the proposed annexation, may appear before the Council of the City of Novato and show cause why such uninhabited territory should not be so annexed to the City of Novato. The protest must be in writing, may be filed at any time before the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed annexation, and shall state the name or names of the owner or owners of property affected and the description and area of such property, in general terms.

4. The City Clerk of the City of Novato is hereby authorized and directed to cause a copy of this resolution to be published at least twice, but not oftener than once a week, in the Novato Advance, a newspaper of general circulation published in said City of Novato and in the Independent Journal, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin, said publication to be complete at least twenty (20) days prior to the date set for hearing.

5. The City Clerk is directed to cause written notice to be given to such other persons as may be legally entitled thereto, in the manner required by law.

The foregoing resolution was duly and regularly introduced and adopted at a regular meeting of the Council of said City held on October 8th, 1963, by the following vote, to-wit:

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

If You Must Get Some Kind Of Skin Disease, Pityriasis Rosea Is Best

VAN DELLEN

Select pityriasis rosea if you must develop a skin disease. It is the most satisfactory of all because it is easy to diagnose and treat. In addition, the condition is mild, seldom recurs, and all its victims get well.

It begins as a red scaling area approximately an inch in diameter. This initial lesion (herald, or mother patch) may appear anywhere on the body but the trunk and thighs are the most likely areas. It resembles and is often treated for ringworm. After a week or more, a generalized eruption begins, a few lesions crop out at a time and continue to do so for the next three weeks.

THESE NEW patches are oval and smaller than the herald spot; they are pinkish, salmon, or chamois colored. There is itching which soon disappears. The face usually escapes and the outbreak seldom appears below the elbows and knees. While there are exceptions, this is mentioned to emphasize how tactful the disease can be in the sites it chooses.

The cause of pityriasis is not known. It is mildly contagious, which suggests that a virus may be responsible. Now and then the eruption occurs when a garment is donned that had been stored away for some time. The rash lasts six to 12 weeks but after the first few weeks, the individual would not know there is anything wrong unless he looks into a mirror.

THE DISORDER favors young adults and in 99 per cent of all cases it never recurrs. The condition may be aborted by exposing the herald spot to ultra-violet light or ordinary sun during the first two weeks. The good effects of Old Sol may explain why the exposed parts of the body escape.

Treatment seldom is necessary. Calamine or lotions containing menthol or camphor relieve itching. Soap and water may aggravate the eruption but there is no need to go dirty unless marked inflammation exists. Avoid the excessive use of highly seasoned foods, alcohol, and coffee.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

HOARSE SINGER

P. M. writes: I sing in a group and many times I use my voice quite a bit and get hoarse. Different lozenges have not helped. Do you know of anything that will help?

REPLY

Give your voice a rest for several months. Many singers develop hoarseness when the voice is overused. Examination is suggested because there may be small nodes on your vocal cords.

SPECIALTIES

K. C. writes: How many types of medical specialties are there?

REPLY

NOT CONTAGIOUS

R. C. writes: Can shingles spread to another person?

REPLY

No. We do not know how this disease spreads except that the parents or grandparents who live in the household of a child with chicken pox may develop shingles. The viruses of both are related.

GROUND NUTS

E. V. writes: Could a person on a bland diet eat nuts that are finely ground?

REPLY

Yes, if finely ground, not grated.

Anti-Smoking Products Becoming Big Business

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP)—A new industry has emerged with the aim of helping smokers quit smoking.

With some medical authorities linking smoking with cancer and other diseases, the urge to quit smoking has grown. But paradoxically, the sale of cigarettes has increased, too.

The smoker who wants to give up the habit can find an increasing number of aids in book and drug stores, where sales of anti-smoking products have grown into a big business.

Book stores stock such volumes as "The Painless Way to Stop Smoking," "The Consumers Union Report on Smoking and the Public Interest" and "Smoking and Health."

Drug stores sell such items to help stop smoking as "Nikoban," manufactured by M. R. Thompson & Co., Crawford, N. J.; "Ban-Smoke" chewing gum, Thompson Medical Co., Inc., New York; "Bantron," Compania Corp., Batavia, Ill., and "Nobacco," Approved Pharmaceutical Corp., Syracuse, N. Y.

Tobacco manufacturers report that sales of cigars and pipe tobacco are increasing. Some medical sources hold that smoking cigars and pipes is not as harmful as cigarettes.

The vending machine industry is acting to make its wares less available to minors. The machines are being moved from locations easily accessible to youngsters.

In Buffalo, N.Y., one of the nation's leading cancer research centers, Roswell Park Memorial Institute, is experimenting with a tobaccoless cigarette.

Part of this research will delve into the role, if any, of nicotine in the smoking habit.

The institute recently started an experimental clinic for people who want to quit smoking. The smokers will be given drugs over several months.

No Mother, Please, Dentist Insists

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Mothers should not remain in the room when their children are undergoing dental treatment, says a specialist.

Except for very small children, the young patient is more relaxed and cooperative if the mother stays in the waiting room, Dr. Walter Schwartz of Rozelle Park, N.J., said today in a paper presented at the 104th annual meeting of the American Dental Assn.

Greyhound Driver Wins Safety Award

Charles W. Smith of 155 Auburn Street, San Rafael, a Greyhound bus driver, has been given a safety award for a million miles of safe driving during the past 15 years.

Besides an award certificate, Smith was given a safe-driver uniform insignia and a ruby ring by Western Greyhound Lines, a division of the Greyhound Corp.

$280 In Old Coins May Bring $1,000

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco Postmaster John F. Fixa announced yesterday that the post office will auction off $280 Oct. 30—and it hopes the high bid will be at least $1,000.

The money, consisting of 280 uncirculated silver dollars dating from 1884-92, was sent through the mail. However, the receiver rejected the coins because of scratches and the post office paid off about $1,000.

New county growing in Marin ...and a newspaper growing in service

Everywhere is the yeast of growth: Plans for sub-divisions that could well be called plans for cities. Earthmovers scooping up the present and moving it into the future. Capital flowing in from New York, Chicago, Miami—name it.

Today, a $7,500,000 apartment project for Corte Madera is announced in one breath, a new shopping center for Larkspur with another. At Northgate, the Emporium is replacing a mountain. On Highway 101, a hundred and one changes in landscape will bring in shopping centers, over-passes, frontage-roads . . . and a new era in shopping convenience.

From the State comes a prediction: Marin will increase 68% in population between now and 1970. Staid Chase-Manhattan Bank of New York says Marin will be the "site of the next population-explosion" in Northern California.

More people. More building. An empty lot today, a high-rise apartment tomorrow. Steel, brick, timber, glass . . . going up at almost frenetic pace. Multi-million dollar "pueblos" are making a new condensed world of living—condominiums, garden, marina apartments, built around a pool.

It takes money. But Marin makes it—the highest-income county in all 11 Western states with an average of $10,078 per family. Which may explain why automobile sales went up 10.1% last year and why the Smiths and the Joneses of Marin now average 1.42 cars in the family garage.

Money too, explains why retail sales, at $212 million, went up 9.6% in 1962 and are ring-a-dinging the register in 1963. Even the bankers must be impressed; they're making a handsome deposit on the future with their own brand new buildings.

This is the new county growing within Marin. And pacing the change is your "communications center", the county-wide Independent-Journal.

By giving you more news coverage, more pages, more features, we help you grow . . . by keeping you better informed. We help advertisers grow by winning more and more readers and their attention.

And we grow, not by grasping the coat-tails of progress, but by reaching out for more and better ways in which to serve you.

WHEN A NEWSPAPER IS PROGRESSIVE, IT GROWS

- I-J circulation now 32,217, has grown faster than population—up 104% in 10 years (Population, up 70%)
- Read by 2 out of every 3 families in Marin County
- Average size of daily edition: 35 pages, last 6 months.
- Complete coverage of Marin—news reported in depth.
- Bigger, more informative special editions. National award winners.
- Judged Best Front Page, Best Editorial Page, Best Typography of any newspaper in California—by Calif. Newspaper Publisher's Assn., 1962 "Better Newspaper Contest".

PG&E Uses Private Firm In Loyalty Check

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Pacific Gas and Electric Co. has used a private "research foundation" to check the loyalty of its employees, PG&E President R. H. Gerdes disclosed yesterday.

The personnel checks are required by the federal government, Gerdes said, because of PG&E's critical position in the nation's defenses.

Gerdes made the disclosure following a conference with President William Bennett of the California Public Utilities Commission and Assemblyman William F. Stanton (D- San Jose).

Stanton has for some time been complaining to the PUC about alleged political activity by PG&E, including "promoting right wing extremists" — a charge which PG&E has denied. Bennett has said he does not believe the PUC's jurisdiction extends to such matters.

Gerdes said today that PG&E has contributed $3,000 a year to Western Research of San Francisco, which he described as a nonprofit organization.

Western Research was assigned to determine whether any PG&E employee belonged to organizations listed by the U.S. attorney general as subversive, Gerdes said.

Perhaps half a dozen employees have been reported to the Federal Bureau of Investigation as a result of Western Research findings, Gerdes said, but he added that no one had been fired.

Stanton said after the conference that he would pursue the issue further. For one thing, he said, he would ask the State Legislature to determine whether licensing or other public controls could be imposed on such agencies as Western Research.

Stanton charged in August that Robert E. Lawrance, PG&E director of investigation, had been gathering information on the political and social views of San Jose State College professors. Lawrance has insisted this was a person matter and had nothing to do with PG&E.

Indicted For Importing Art

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — H. Grant Heaton, a former Salt Lake City art dealer, was indicted by the federal grand jury yesterday on charges of illegally conspiring to import art treasures valued at about $35,000.

U.S. District Judge Lloyd Burke issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Heaton, a former Mormon Church missionary now believed to be living in Seattle.

Heaton was accused of importing 37 pieces of art from Red China in 1959. The goods — allegedly including embroideries, vases, paintings and sculptured ivory pieces—were shipped through San Francisco.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

It's Neat Trick But Marinites Own One And One Half Autos

Americans own approximately two-thirds of all the automobiles in the world, and one family in about every eight or 10 bought a 1963 model. A rough guess on what happened in Marin would be one in six.

But if you're still strapped by your seat belt to an earlier vintage — be not dismayed. There's probably a lot of life in it yet.

According to a survey by the Department of Commerce, 90 per cent of all cars live to be seven years old. During the next four years, one out of 10 in each model run hits the scrap heap. By the end of 13 years, a quarter of them still haven't given their last gasp—most of them lower-priced cars.

There is no telling what today's engineering advances may do to increase the life expectancy, but 1953-1955 models seem to be following the same pattern set by those of 1947-1949. Average age of today's car on the road is between five and six years.

Marin car ownership is now 1.42 per family.

'Drunkard' To Be Performed

Rehearsals are under way for "The Drunkard" by the Homestead Players, although at this moment the opening date is only tentative due to lack of a hall.

Brown's Hall is expected to be refurbished, following the March fire, and tentatively the play will open Nov. 15, players president Margaret Kelly said today.

The play was first produced in 1844 at the Boston Museum where it ran more than 100 nights. The players' production will include beer and pretzels, and is to play three weekends. Daniel E. Caldwell, Tamalpais High School drama teacher, directs.

Toll Bridge Aide Is Named

SACRAMENTO (AP) — E. R. Foley, veteran state bridge and highway engineer, was appointed yesterday as chief engineer of a new toll bridge division of the Public Works Department.

Director John Erreca said the new division will plan and construct future crossings of San Francisco Bay and other port areas, and maintain and operate existing toll bridges.

It will take over the functions of the Division of San Francisco Bay Toll Crossings, plus other toll bridge operations which have been conducted by the Division of Highways.

Baha'i Will Observe United Nations Day

The Novato Baha'i community will observe United Nations Day with a potluck dinner consisting of international dishes at the Novato Community House on Oct. 27 at 6 p.m.

Mrs. C. C. Meredith, executive board member of the Marin Chapter, American Assn. for the United Nations, will speak and show a film entitled "How Peace Came to the Congo Through the United Nations." The dinner is open to the public, reported Fred Babo, chairman of the Baha'i group.

National Highlights Junior Rally Theme

The junior class at Redwood High School has selected "National Highlights of 1963" as the theme for a rally Dec. 11 and 12.

The rally will include skits on hootenannies, surfing, T.V.'s "Bonanza", and the movie, "Cleopatra," said Kerry Warnock, co-director of the rally committee.

Dinner Set Oct. 25

The second annual dinner meeting of the Marin Branch of the Henry George School of Social Science will be held at 7:15 p.m., Oct. 25 at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael, not tomorrow night as incorrectly reported in Tuesday's Independent-Journal.

During 1962, the National Safety Council reports, 11 million traffic accidents involving 19 million cars killed 40,900 persons in this country.

'Battered' Children Tomorrow's Slayers?

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI) — Psychological research shows today's "battered" children may be tomorrow's murderers. Dr. George C. Curtis reminded his fellow psychiatrists of this fact in urging them to do their duty to the public.

That duty is "to hold the implications of child abuse steadily before the public's attention," and also to produce new observations and insights into the ultimate consequences, both good and ill, of what adults do to children, he said.

Dr. Curtis was moved by current medical interest in what has come to be called "the battered child syndrome." It began with the discovery that not all injured small children brought to hospitals were victims of falls and other accidents.

X-ray examination proved that some undoubtedly had been cuffed, kicked and otherwise assaulted by an adult despite parental denials. Enough of these X-ray-proved assault cases have been produced to convince medical authorities that "the battered child syndrome" is not rare.

From the viewpoint of psychological science there is "a probable tendency of children so treated to become tomorrow's murderers and perpetrators of other crimes of violence, if they survive," Curtis said in addressing psychiatrists through the American Psychiatric Assn.

You'd expect a repeatedly battered child to "have an unusual degree of hostility toward the parents and toward the world in general. The child would be presented with parental objects for identification who provided an example of the destructive and relatively uncontrolled release of hostile aggression."

For this last statement Curtis provided a translation into language which he said was "understandable to everyone." The translation: "Monkey see, monkey do."

Research results are not conclusive, he said, but certainly they're highly indicative that violence breeds violence.

A psychological study of six convicted male murderers in 1958 found that four of them as children had suffered "continuous remorseless brutality at the hands of one parent in the fact of complaint acquiescence of the other."

Not every battered child is going to become an adult murderer or indulge in other violent crimes, since "the child's reactions and adaptation to abuse probably vary with many other aspects of his life and circumstances."

The "battered child syndrome" raises important questions for psychological science. Curtis recalled the general scientific view that sadistic parents were themselves victims of sadistic parents. But evidently child-beating "waxes and wanes from one generation to the next."
